Martin's Murmurations

Photograph: Carol Hart

July for many is a month of change. Pupils in year six at our local primary school came to the end of their time in what was a familiar place which they had grown used to. Their school was a place of security where they spent much of their time among friends being taught by adults with a deep sense of vocation. They are about to go through an enormous amount of change. New systems, new buildings, new classmates, new subjects and new challenges. Their new term starts in September.

They need our prayers and our support. It is not an easy time for them. For teachers it has also been a difficult time. Young people they nurtured from Reception Class to year Six will soon be in the care of others. It is not possible to spend time along side other people albeit of such tender years without caring for them, being infuriated with them, laughing with them and watching them blossom and flourish because of the work they and their colleagues have done. It will have been hard work for them. Most teachers I have known worked more hours than they are given credit for. The ludicrous taunts which claim they enjoy long holidays such as they are doing now in August does not bear examination if all the hours out of school they spend preparing for lessons are added up. Gearing up to enthuse young children to enjoy learning is no easy task. To have to face the draconian inspection from OFSTED is always a huge ordeal.

I remember when I was a chair of governors having to spend so much time trying to calm the nerves of our staff before such an inspection and then having to help pick up the pieces afterwards. This despite the fact the school was deemed excellent. I worked also with a school in an inner city which was deemed to be in 'need of improvement'. The pressure on the teachers was enormous but all of them found time to fill the school with love for the large number of disadvantaged children who attended the school.

OFSTED did not acknowledge the level of care in that place nor the fact the teachers set up a food bank for their pupils to use. Without that food, children would have gone hungry. If I went into school early in the morning they were already there and were still hiving away well after the going home bell had rung.

It is heartening to know that whatever the backgrounds of children, there are a massive number of young men and women eager to train as teachers; and many thousands who have spent the whole of their working lives opening up so many possibilities, so many dreams and visions for our young people. They should all be hailed as community heroes.

At the leaving service for our local year six every child moving on was given a copy of the Holy Bible. Some may have preferred books telling adventure stories or tales of epic journeys. They may have wanted books which tell of great friendship or huge betrayals. Some may have preferred poetry or works of great human achievements. They might have wanted tales of sacrifice and bravery. In truth this is exactly what they have received. The library of books which is the Holy Bible contains all these things and more. Above all it is the story of how God loved the world and no matter how many times he was let down that love did not diminish and still does not diminish. The love of God, is demonstrated best through human love. Human love is wanting the very best for those we love. The teachers who have nurtured our young people for the first six years of their education have been part of God delivering his love. The rest of the community should not only be grateful for that but should also pray that during this holiday they may have a time of rest and recuperation in order to begin again with the next cohort to come under their care.

If you are going to be on holiday have a great and blessed time.

Fr. Martin

Celebrating in Style: Unique Bevern Birthdays!

Every day is special - but birthdays are magic at Bevern View. June is packed with birthdays, and we treasure every opportunity to celebrate our residents. Birthdays are more than just dates on a calendar; they're a chance to honour each person's individuality, their stories, and the relationships that shape their lives.

Thanks to the generosity of our supporters, birthdays at Bevern are truly memorable. Behind each celebration is our dedicated activities and support team, who put thought, care, and creativity into every detail. Many of our residents communicate in unique or limited ways, so birthday plans often come together through close collaboration with families, friends, and our deep, day-to-day relationships with residents.

Knowing what makes someone smile or light up helps us shape moments that truly matter.

These celebrations aren't just fun - they're moments that tell our residents, "You are known. You are loved. You matter." And it doesn't stop at birthdays. Whether it's a Wednesday afternoon or a special holiday, we strive to make every day feel individual and meaningful. When we say we care, we mean in every detail, whether big or small.

Your support makes this possible. From funding day trips and entertainment to enabling the creative touches our team adds to every event, your generosity helps us create days filled with joy, dignity, and belonging.

Thank you for making birthdays brighter and for believing, as we do, that everyone deserves to feel extraordinary.

Uckfield, Lewes & Newick Arts Society New Season September 2025-June 2026

We are on holiday until September so no lecture this August. However our Programme Secretary Peggy has been working very hard on your behalf organising our next season.

In January we will be having Dr Colin Shindler's talk 'Screening the Novel, Books into Films.' How do you condense such works as 'Gone with the Wind' into a mere few hours? So many Classics have been portrayed again and again and some of them differ quite extraordinarily. Dr Schindler has himself produced many dramas and documentaries and was awarded a BAFTA for his production of 'Little Princess.'

Tirzah Garwood was the tragic wife of Eric Ravilious. This moving lecture by James Russell in June, will tell about her life, work and sad early death. This talented and brilliant artist is too often overlooked, before her marriage she was a wood carver and also a painter of exceptional ability and originality.

Our lectures are always on the second Wednesday of the month beginning on September 10th at 2.30 in the Civic Hall Uckfield. Guests are always welcome, £8 on the door, but of course it would be splendid if you could join our society. It costs £60 for the year and for that not only do you get 10 lectures but you can also enjoy several other advantages like our Christmas Lunch at the ever popular Picture House Restaurant in Uckfield or the chance to go on one of our specially organised visits.

Please contact me if you are interested in joining. Enjoy the rest of the summer!

Newick CE Primary School – Term 6

At the time of writing this we are heading into the final days of Term 6, and what a year it has been at Newick CE Primary School!

This year we have had our SIAMS inspection, and our OFSTED inspection after a very long 14 years. We have also had an Inclusion Quality Mark assessment, and obtained a Centre of Excellence for our work with inclusion. We shone in all of these areas, upholding our Christian values and gaining a truly brilliant OFSTED judgement – at the time of writing the full report has not been published, but we are very pleased with the outcome. The staff have worked their socks off over here and are heading into a very well deserved summer break.

Term 6 is all about moving on, and this year was a big one for Year 6. The pupils shone at 'The Gathering of the Goblins' Goodwood, racing their hand built cars designed over the year in Engineering Club. All of our Year 6 attended PGL in May, a residential with raft building, abseiling, the giant swing and so much more.

Year 6 shone at the Diocesan church service once more, with Lula and Sam representing us with some wonderfully read prayers. They have created a stupendous 'Greatest Show' Y5/6 production, and as this cohort are particularly musical have really shone with all of the singing.

Our award winning Dance Club represented Newick Primary at DCAT Enriched recently with a wonderful rendition of Dolly Parton's 9 to 5, bringing home more silverware for our bursting cupboard!

Once again the Newick School PTFA have surpassed themselves with a wonderful Colour Run in June, and the superb Summer Fair in July. The PTFA this year have raised enough money to be able to purchase a whole class set of top of the range iPads. This is incredible, and will benefit all of the pupils' learning.

The Garden School has gone from strength to strength with the addition of our polytunnel this year. The Otters and their Year 6 buddies have had a wonderful term harvesting fruit, planting out salad, watering the poor garden in the heat and working together. They enjoyed a very refreshing herbal tea in the spiritual space after their hard work! Massive thanks to Jenny Smerdon for her work in the Garden every week. We were runners up in the School Garden award at St Peter and St James Hospice recently too!

We are looking for causal Mid-Day Supervisor Staff. If this is a role that you would be interested in please do contact the school on admin@newickschool.co.uk – see advert on page 32.

I would like to thank our community of staff, parents and neighbours alike for your support in enabling the great work at Newick to continue. We are so proud of our school, and our inspections this year reflect this. Most of all credit goes to the wonderful pupils, who work tirelessly day in and day out.

Wishing our community a very lovely, relaxing summer break. We will see you all again in September.

Mrs Faye Lawrence
Headteacher

Newick Country Market

The market is held on Saturday mornings between 9 am and 11 am at 40 The Rough, Newick. Why don't you pop along and find us under our gazebo come rain or shine.

Every week we have homemade cakes and savoury bakes, including pies, quiches and sausage rolls available as well as eggs, preserves and a variety of plants in season.

Orders can be placed for any baked items, including gluten free, which can be collected the following Saturday. We have a card reader if customers wish to use this method of payment.

If you haven't done so yet do come and see us.

Further information can be found on Newick Talk.

Newick Green WI

There is no regular meeting in August. We usually get together in a member's garden for lunch and have a very enjoyable time together.

For further information about our meetings contact Linda on 722689.

This Summer St Peter & St James Hospice celebrates 50 years of providing expert care to adults with life-limiting illnesses and those close to them. The hospice, which serves the areas of Haywards Heath, Burgess Hill, Lewes, Uckfield and the villages in between, has maintained the same vision throughout the decades; 'to provide the best possible care, in the right place, and at the right time, to everyone who needs us'.

Amanda Fadero, our Interim Chief Executive at St Peter & St James Hospice recently announced that, whilst this important milestone in the hospice's story is a moment to celebrate, it is just as critical that we continue to support, and be supported by, the community to help us create our next chapter. As a result, the hospice is running a 50 for 50 campaign and is reaching out to our local community to help us raise £50,000.

The anniversary campaign also gives the hospice an opportunity to raise awareness across the community about what hospice care is, to ensure they know that all the specialist services we provide at St Peter & St James Hospice are completely free of charge for all, irrespective of age, religion, background or ethnicity and to provide people with information and support, to help them live and die well, according to what matters most to them.

We cannot thank our community enough for all their support over the last 50 years, which has enabled us to provide holistic care, wrapping our arms not only around the patient, but their loved ones too, for as long as they need us. It costs us £6.9m to run the hospice each year and the vast majority of our funding comes from donations within our community.

If you are able, please donate to our 50 for 50 campaign, to help ensure we can be here for future generations to come.

To donate to St Peter & St James Hospice please visit www.stpjhospice.org. To let us know your memories or experiences of the hospice over the last 50 years, please email marketing@stpjhospice.org. Alternatively, if you want to find out more, run a fundraiser for us or support us in some other way, please email fundraising@stpjhospice.org

SNIPPETS OF NEWICK HISTORY BY ANTIQUARIUS

This poem is based on a true report in the local newspapers of the time (Sussex Weekly Advertiser and Sussex Express).

Newick - November 1865

The banns were read in Newick church, the couple smiled and kissed.

Young shoemaker Spencer and Emily were heading for married bliss.

Spencer was a cheerful sort, industrious through and through.
Emily was a servant girl, intending to be true.

They had their plans arranged with care, furniture to buy mid-week.
Then on Saturday the wedding day with all their friends to meet.

But plans were foiled, sad to say, joy was not to be.
A bird and a shotgun played their part in the tragedy.

In a garden came a black bird that Spencer sought to shoot.
He fired the gun but the barrel burst and the stock was shattered wood.

The fatal blast made a gruesome sight as Spencer lay on the ground.
In a pool of blood and his disfigured head, by his father he was found.

At the coroner's inquest, held in the Bull Inn, the evidence was heard.
The black bird was mentioned. 'Accidental death' was the verdict's words.

In a grave near the church vestry door, Spencer's body was lain.
On that chill November day in Newick, the whole village felt the pain.

Newick Villagers Form Campaign Group to Stop Over-Development

Colourful signs are springing up in and around the village as residents rally to halt the proposed 250-house development at Goldbridge Farm, which they say will turn our historic rural village into an anonymous urban town.

Campaign group Save Newick Village was launched at the Newick Food Fair, with more than 150 people pledging their support for the fight against the development on 85 acres of productive farmland and historic countryside. They say it will increase the village population by a third and add 300 more cars to the chaos of the already over-congested A272. The village has welcomed and supported several recent and on-going developments, which are already adding 148 houses and around 450 extra people to Newick.

The group is urging residents to go to www.savenewickvillage.com to add to the objections being sent to Lewes District Council to help halt the development.

Newick Parish Council has already submitted its objections to the proposal to Lewes District Council. Parish Council Chair Cllr Brian Hodge said: "The proposed development is totally unsustainable. There's up to a six-week waiting list at our GP surgery, local schools and colleges are turning pupils away and the proposed development will add even more pollution and sewage into the nearby River Ouse – the site is on the edge of a flood plain and adjacent to a sewage works, which regularly dumps into the river.

"Residents of a new development would be car-dependent, causing more congestion, delays and accidents on the A272 - and walking into the village along narrow or non-existent footpaths would be extremely hazardous. With starting prices of around £700,000 for houses at its other recently-built sites, claims of 40% affordable homes at Newick by developers Brookworth Homes are laughable."

Anyone who would like to 'host' a sign in a prominent position at their home should request one via the website or by emailing: savenewickvillage@gmail.com

NEWICK FOOD FAIR 2025

Newick Food Fair 2025 – What a Sizzler!

What a day that was! We might have set a record for the hottest Food Fair ever – judging by the number of locals who made a dash to the coast! But despite the heat, our fabulous stallholders told us the fair was brilliantly attended, and we received so many warm comments about how friendly, cheerful, and supportive our visitors were. Newick, you never disappoint!

Of course, this kind of event doesn't just happen. It takes an amazing amount of community spirit, behind-the-scenes effort, and good old-fashioned teamwork. Every year, I worry I'll miss someone off the thank-you list – so if that's you, please know your support truly means the world to us.

Here's our shoutout roll call:

Andy Upton – for the marquee

Jon Tivey and his A-Team – marquee up, marquee down, all with military precision

Philip Wood – without your field, there's no fair. Fact.

Newick & Chailey Hospice Support Group – best tombola ever! Massive thanks to stallholders for donating prizes and paying pitch fees – legends!

Malcolm Smith – your yellow marquee is a sunny delight

Newick Pavilion Committee – stepping in like total pros

Martin at Mansel McTaggart – signage on point!

Julia & Paddy Cumberlege – thanks for letting the crowd trample through your lovely garden (again!)

Libby Hipwell + Julie & Andrew Brooks – your electricity kept things buzzing

Tony Turk – love those “then and now” Newick pics – beautifully nostalgic

Sullivan George – my “can-you-just” guy – nothing you can't fix!

Hilary – general superstar + bacon roll queen

Claire at Kentish Barns – thanks for keeping the 'Gram looking fab

Jenny Smerdon – always, always, always amazing

And Now the Best Bit.....

Thanks to everyone who came, ate, shopped, and supported, we are thrilled to announce we raised our highest total ever!

Newick Food Fair will be donating £1,266 to the Hospice matching the money raised on the day with tombola and other donations, bringing the total donation to £2,532.

On top of that, we are also donating £500 to the Scouts to help with vital repairs to the Scout Hut.

From everyone involved in organising the fair: thank you. Your support makes this day what it is, and we hope you had as much fun as we did.

Finally, the date for next year's Newick Food Fair is 28th June 2026.

NEWICK CINEMA

Newick Cinema – Summer Break

Dear Cinema goers,

There will be no film screening in August.

Our next film will be shown on Sunday 28th September - details of the film will be on posters and in the parish magazines in good time for the screening.

As always thank you for your support and wishing you a happy summer – let's hope the weather is kind and all the sun didn't get used up in the lovely April we had!

Bev and David

Friends of Chailey Windmill

The Mill and Rural Life Museum will be open on Sunday 17th and Sunday 31st August 3-5pm. No charge is made for admission but donations are welcome towards the upkeep and presentation of the historic landmark which has stood on this site since 1864. It ceased milling in 1911. Due to its exposed and elevated position it has been subject to severe damage over the years.

The Rural Life Museum has many items relating to Chailey's history and the Friends are keen to display more exhibits. A recent addition is a cabinet made over 30 years ago by the boys of Chailey Heritage Foundation who were taught wood working skills.

Peace

Thankyou Lord that when we give our lives into your hands your peace descends upon us, surpassing all understanding, as we rest in you. Then we need not worry about all the things that are too big for us to handle. You ask us to hand them to you in the knowledge that no problem is too great for you.

Peace

Thankyou Lord that the peace in our lives shines on others who ask "How can I be at peace when the world is falling apart with war and poverty and a mountain of people's problems?" Gently we say "We don't understand it either, but when we put ourselves in Jesus's hands he takes away all our fears and worries and we become bearers of his peace."

Peace and Prayer

Thankyou Lord Jesus that peace prevails when we come together in prayer, for every small matter and every large one. You said, "When two or three are gathered in my Name I will be there with them." And our praise and our prayers become like fragrant incense in the courts of heaven as we lift them up with you. Then God, our Father, receives them. May our prayers bring joy in Heaven and peace on Earth.

Peace in us, peace for the world

We listen to you Lord Jesus when you say "Love your enemies and do good to those who persecute you." for that is how you overcame death and brought us eternal life. We pray for the courage and persistence in the face of cold opposition to bring your love to all people, friend or foe, so that the whole world will understand the folly and evil of war, that the whole world will see that to build up is the only way to peace, and to destroy is the road to ruin for aggressor and victim alike.

May God's Peace be with you!
