Director's Corner

Linda S. Ingham

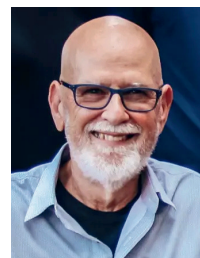

I don't know about you but the character, actions, and works of God are beyond my human comprehension and understanding. I wonder a lot about God as I read His Word and experience His heart. Here's an astounding truth to ponder: In Psalm 139, while David addresses the fact that he can never escape God's presence because God is in heaven, in Sheol, in the remotest part of the sea, and in the dawn sky, he declares a stunning truth -- "Even the darkness is not dark to Thee, And the night is as bright as the day. Darkness and light are alike to Thee." Is that wild or what? Darkness is not dark to God? The night is bright to Him? Darkness and light are actually alike to God?

In grasping those mystifying truths and as we experience our own personal dark times, it is critical to understand why it seems that God is not with us in the darkness, apparently far away and even silent! Is God really intimidated, turning His back, walking away, and silent? After all, the Bible says, "I will never leave thee nor forsake thee"? (Heb. 13:5) I suggest that since darkness and light are alike to God, the darkness we experience has no affect on Him; only WE are affected! God is not gone, swallowed up in our darkness; He does not leave us! The truth is that darkness, often depressing, heavy, and even evil, stands between us and God. That darkness can be deep emotional pain, heartache, and maybe even sin, all of which can be personal and/or comes down to us through our bloodline.

But through the Gospel, there is a way out of it all! If you participate in our Become a Champion of the Gospel Process Training, we would love to help you discover and learn to utilize the practical tools of the Gospel for freedom and healing from darkness! We would be honored to help you! Let us know!

WITH GRATITUDE...

We want to acknowledge Bill Hershey's faithful and supportive ministry of sitting in on Gospel Process sessions with men, as they were led by women. After enduring some long-term health issues, Saturday morning, February 1, was his "simply breathing" day to receive Jesus' complete freedom and healing through graduating to Heaven! While he is now experiencing the actual hope and joy of eternity, his ministry here on earth will be missed! (Bill was Sharon Hershey's husband, the founder of Life Awakening.)
