Newsletter

I was introduced to the Gospel Process through a family member. I was in the midst of an unhealthy marriage and wanted to get counseling because I felt completely crazy and lost. I needed to find myself again. I knew from going through therapy in my twenties that not all counselors get to the root of the issue and if the root is not addressed and brought before God, there is no true freedom.

When I heard about the Gospel Process, I was intrigued. I was desperate for God and the release from all the junk that came with the trauma I had experienced. After several sessions, I began to notice a difference in how I handled situations that before would throw me into depression. Each session God took me deeper, peeling off layers one by one. I have had several breakthroughs in areas that held me in bondage for decades. Now, the days after a session are fascinating to me as I find myself responding to situations differently than before.

The Gospel Process continues to take my relationship with God to the next level. I love that salvation is already taken care of. We do not need to perform and we do not need to work or labor to find freedom or a relationship with God. He is waiting with open arms to set us free and we only need to be desperate for Him! The Gospel Process takes the sin and the junk and gets rid of it and the effects it has on our body. It has shown me that I am separate from the trauma of my life and from sin. These things do not define me. Jesus in me is victory and we are victorious over the effects of sin and pain.

Linda is absolutely a huge blessing in my life. Not once have I ever felt judged or condemned by what I bring up. The Gospel Process brings true freedom from bondage and I am so thankful that Linda was willing to receive the Holy Spirit's download of the Gospel Process. --Lisa

Director's Corner

Linda S. Ingham

Numbers 21:4-9 teach a reflective truth. Because of their critical grievances, God sent fiery serpents as judgments to bite the Israelites and as a result, many died. So upon the confession of their sin, they asked Moses to intercede for God's removal of the serpents, probably believing that in His mercy, He surely would remove them. But God in His mystifying manner answered their appeal in an unexpected way: He instructed Moses to not only create a bronze serpent and set it upon a pole, but He then declared "...it shall come about, that everyone who is bitten, when he looks at it [sees, discerns], shall live [emphasis added]." Whoa! God did not take away the fiery serpents. Instead, He kept them coming and declared that they would LIVE IF they would look at what bit them...the fiery serpent! What a heart-provoking instruction for deliverance!

So the role of a Gospel Process facilitator is to help a client "see and discern what bit him." What bites people? What are those fiery serpents? Bullying, divorce, abuse/trauma, sin, and more, together with that deceptive-in-the-long-run coping mechanism(s) one develops to keep from feeling pain. You see, if we don't take the time to look at what bit us, WE WON'T LIVE! Yes, we will be robbed of the quality and maybe even the quantity of life that God designed for us!

We are excited that our upcoming LA Academy will help more Lisa's take the time to look at what bit them so they can then join the Gospel through the Gospel Process and LIVE!
