GOD'S MANDATE TO THE CHURCH

With support and inspiration from past Gospel Process Clients and others in the community, Life Awakening came to the conclusion a while back that we were called and even mandated by God to expand the use of the Gospel Process to more people and thereby increase the breadth of our impact. To that end, we have diligently prepared and, in turn, trialed teaching materials that will not only teach the Gospel Process, but also the greater ability for us as Christians to walk victoriously in our union with Christ, ruling over the sin and pain that besets and/or tempts us.

We have written a Statement called, "God's Mandate to the Church" in which we lay out God's desire for the Church at large to take a front and center role in helping individuals learn how to "put off the old" and "put on the new" and thereby walk in victory. We emphasize what we believe to be a "missing link" in the application of the Gospel to gain that victory. While the Church and even Christian counseling has strongly taught "putting on" the new, including truth, righteousness, victory, etc., teaching believers how to first "put off the old" has often been overlooked. Though Jesus' victory over sin and pain IS a once-and-done atonement, our individual victory is rarely a once-and-done deal, but, rather, a "working out of our salvation". The "putting off" of old beliefs, habits, and works of the enemy, needs to precede the full "putting on" of glory, just as we can't put on party garb without first removing our dirty work clothes and taking a shower.

The Gospel Process and other tools from Life Awakening's Toolkit equip believers to do just that! We want to teach believers the overlooked necessity of and the know-how to "putting off" old sin and pain before "putting on" our glory garb. Often, we need to work out and struggle through the old junk (it's painful and ugly at times) before we can enjoy the beautiful resurrection that we have in Christ.

The Mandate also includes the exciting news that the Gospel is still the best answer. We are delighted and excited to bring our Toolkit to the Church in hopes of being that "missing link" for success. If you would like to hear more about God's Mandate for the Church and Life Awakening's response to that Mandate, please feel free to request a copy!

Director's Corner

Linda S. Ingham

I love the four seasons with their distinctive changes! The glistening white snow of winter with its brisk, fresh air transforms into a colorful parade of flowers, bushes, and trees as the smooth, warm breeze of spring whisks through our hair. Then the temperature climbs, sending our sweaty selves to the beaches, the pools, and the lakes with their splendid refreshment. And oh, the temperature finally starts to plummet and before we know it, we sit enamored at God's magnificent display of the brilliant fall foliage against the backdrop of a breathtaking sunset! Each season paints a unique artistry viewed through diverse lenses of the Artist's children.

Here at Life Awakening, the seasons since our 2001 inception have been distinctively different -- each ordained by God and purposefully experienced. After many years of writing and preparation, which was prevailing through a long winter season, we are humbled to launch Life Awakening's Toolkit with its assorted colors. As noted herein, this Toolkit will train the Body of Christ to learn "how" to "put off the old" and "put on the new" through joining the powerful Gospel of Jesus Christ! As noted above, there is quite an assortment of Tools! Know that our heart is to assist you and your Church!
