PAYMENT POLICY

Please read and sign this form as it concerns you, the patient.

YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR YOUR INSURANCE POLICY

Due to many changes in Insurance policies, we cannot be responsible for interpreting each individual policy. It is the patient's responsibility to know your individual coverage and its limitations, as well as who is in an In-Network Provider for your plan.

We urge you to check with your insurance company regarding your benefits. Failure to comply could result in you, the patient, being responsible for all costs incurred. Please remember that your insurance policy is a contract between you and your insurance company. It is your responsibility to know or find out, whether or not our provider is In-Network for your specific insurance plan.

Referrals

If you need a referral from your insurance company or your Primary Care Provider (PCP) to be seen in this office, the referral must be present and handed to the front office staff at the time of your visit. If it is not available, your appointment will be rescheduled and it will be your responsibility to obtain one. We encourage you to call your PCP and have your referral faxed to us prior to your appointment.

Non-Participating/Out of Network Provider Policy

If we are not a participating provider with your insurance company/plan, we will collect our fee in full at the time of service.

If the physician is considered out-of-network provider with your insurance company/plan, we will collect all out-of-network co-payments and fees at the time of service.

Your Financial Responsibility

You are responsible for paying any co-payments, co-insurance, deductibles, etc. Because we are considered specialists, some diagnostic and invasive procedures are not considered part of your standard office visit co-payment and may be applied toward your deductible and/or co-insurance.

Please call your insurance company and take the time to learn about your specific plan and what services it covers.

NO SHOW/MISSED APPOINTMENT POLICY

When our office books your appointment, we are setting aside a dedicated time slot for you. We only ask that if you must reschedule your appointment that you please provide us with at least 24 hours' notice. This policy enables us to better utilize our appointment slots for those in need of our medical care.

Effective January 1, 2019 there will be charge of $25.00 for not showing up at any/all scheduled appointments.

If this fee is charged to your account, no future appointments will be scheduled until it is paid.

MALPRACTICE ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Due to the current medical malpractice crisis, Dr. Haley does not carry medical malpractice insurance.

Under Florida law, physicians are generally required to carry medical malpractice insurance or otherwise demonstrate financial responsibility to cover potential claims for medical malpractice. Your doctor has decided not to carry medical malpractice insurance. This is permitted under Florida law subject to certain conditions. Florida law imposes penalties against noninsured physicians who fail to satisfy adverse judgements arising from claims of medical malpractice. This notice is provided pursuant to Florida law.

EMAIL CONSENT & ACKNOWLEDGMENT FORM

1. Risk of using email to communicate with your provider:

Brian Haley, M.D. (to be referred to as provider for the remainder of this form) offers patients the opportunity to communicate by email. Transmitting patient information by email has a number of risks that patients should consider before using email communication. These include, but are not limited to, the following risks:

- a) Emails can be circulated, forwarded, and stored in numerous paper and electronic files
- b) Emails can be immediately broadcast worldwide and be received by unintended recipients
- c) Email senders can easily type in the wrong email address
- d) Email is easier to falsify handwritten or signed documents
- e) Back up copies of email may exist even after the sender or recipient has deleted his or her copy
- f) Employers and on-line services have a right to archive and inspect emails transmitted through their system
- g) Email can be intercepted, altered, forwarded, or used without authorization or detection
- h) Email can be used to introduce viruses into the computer system
- i) Email can be used as evidence in court

2. Conditions for the use of email:

Brian Haley, M.D. will use reasonable means to protect the security and confidentiality of email information sent and received. However, because of the risks outlined above, the provider cannot guarantee the security and confidentiality of email communication, and will not be liable for improper disclosure of confidential information that is not caused by provider's intentional misconduct. Thus, the patients must consent to the use of email for patient information. Consent to the use of email includes agreement with the following conditions:

- a) All emails to or from the patient concerning diagnosis or treatment will be printed out and made part of the patient's medical record. Because they are part of the medical record, other individuals authorized to access the medical record will have access to those emails.
- b) Provider may forward emails internally to provider staff and agents necessary for diagnosis, treatment, reimbursement, and other handling. Provider will not, however, forward emails to independent third parties without the patient's prior written consent, except as authorized or required by law.
- c) The patient is responsible for protecting his/her password or other means of access to email. Provider is not liable for breaches of confidentiality caused by the patient or a third party.
- d) Provider shall not engage in email communication that is unlawful, such as unlawfully practicing medicine across state lines.
- e) It is the patient's responsibility to follow-up and/or schedule an appointment.

3. Patient responsibility and instructions: to communicate by email, the patient shall:

- a) Limit or avoid using his/her employer's computer.
- b) Inform provider of changes in his/her email address.
- c) Confirm that he/she has received and read the email from the provider.
- d) Put the patient's name in the body of the email.
- e) Include the category of the communication in the emails subject line for, for routing purposes (e.g. billing and questions).
- f) Take precautions to preserve the confidentiality of email, such as using screen savers and safeguarding his/her computer password.
- g) Withdraw consent only by email or written communication to provider.

4. Termination of the email relationship

The provider shall have the right to immediately terminate the email relationship with you if determined in the sole provider discretion, that you have violated the terms and conditions set forth above or otherwise breached this agreement, or have engaged in conduct which the provider determine to be unacceptable.

5. Patient acknowledgement and agreement

I have discussed with the provider or his/her representative and I acknowledge that I have read and fully understand this consent form. I understand the risks associated with the communication of email between the provider and me, and consent to the conditions herein. I agree to the instructions outlined herein, as well as any other instructions that my provider may impose to communicate with patients by email. Any questions I have had were answered.

6. Hold Harmless

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless the provider and its trustees, officers, directors, employees, agents, information provider and suppliers, and website designers and maintainers from and against all losses, expenses, damages and costs, including reasonable attorney's fees, relating to or arising from any information loss due to technical failure, my use of the internet to communicate with the provider, and any breach by me of these restrictions and conditions.
