Policy

The Chevak Traditional Council (CTC) Burial Assistance Program may provide a one-time payment amount not to exceed $1000.00 to be used towards next of kin, funeral home, transportation, or other related funeral expenses of a Chevak Native Village Tribal Member.

Procedure

If approved, CTC will disperse funds as follows:

1. Next of Kin. Next of Kin must be an immediate family member (parent, grandparent, child, spouse, sibling) and be a Chevak Native Village Tribal Member to be considered eligible for Burial Assistance.
2. Casket. An invoice must be submitted for payment.
3. Airfare. Airfare up to $1000 will be allowed as a one-time payment to an air carrier for family members to attend a funeral. Unused funds cannot be considered.
4. Funeral Home. If the applicant requests the funding to be dispersed to the funeral home, an invoice from the funeral home must be included with the application.
5. Reimbursement. The applicant must submit an itemized statement of expenses with receipts and be paid out of pocket. Receipts considered for reimbursement may include and are in priority order:
 - a) Transportation costs for the deceased to the final resting place,
 - b) Transportation costs for immediate family members or spouse to attend funeral services for the deceased, and
 - c) Other expenses related to the funeral service may include food for the funeral service, casket, airfare, flower arrangements for the funeral service, and final resting place fees.
