

Florida Law - Information Reporting Requirements

- Certain information we collect from you is required by Florida law for Florida's Compulsory requirements and Health and Immunization requirements only. Permission to Succeed Academy respects your privacy and will only use your information as legally required by the State of Florida.
- All private schools in Florida are required by Florida law to submit an Annual Database Survey. No personal or identifiable information is sent to the Florida Department of Education. A head count of how many students are enrolled in Permission to Succeed Academy and information about the school is provided in the Annual Database Survey.
