

Online Video Series– Learning to Love the Word Exercise 1

REMEMBER!

→ PRAY, Read, Reread & Read Again

Remember, part of reading is paying attention to the CONTEXT (what comes before and after the text).

Here is some background to help with the context of 2 Timothy 1:16–18

- 2 Timothy is authored by the apostle Paul.
- He is writing this letter to his disciple (spiritual son), Timothy, while in chains (prison) in Rome.
- This is actually the second of two letters written to Timothy by Paul.

No matter how familiar you are with this text, please try and observe what these verses say, rather than relying on what you may already know.

16 May the Lord show mercy to the household of Onesiphorus, because he often refreshed me and was not ashamed of my chains. 17 On the contrary, when he was in Rome, he searched hard for me until he found me. 18 May the Lord grant that he will find mercy from the Lord on that day! You know very well in how many ways he helped me in Ephesus.
