

PSYCHOTHERAPIST-CLIENT SERVICE AGREEMENT

This document contains important information about my professional services and business policies. Please read it carefully and we can discuss any questions or concerns you might prior to signing. When you sign this document, it will represent an agreement between us.

Fee Schedule. The fee for the initial intake session is $250 per 60-75 minute visit and includes a thorough interview of your presenting issues and history as part of a diagnostic evaluation process. Fees for weekly services are $225 per 55 minute session and $200 per 45 minute session. I charge the same hourly rate for other professional services you may need on a prorated basis. Other services may include psychotherapy provided by telephone, preparation of records or treatment summaries, and the time spent performing any other service you may request of me. Typically, the charge for a treatment summary is $100 due at time of request. Photocopying of records is $35. Fees may increase periodically.

Billing and Payments. I am currently paneled with several insurance plans. If I am a preferred provider for your insurance, I will submit claims on your behalf. You will then be responsible for only the co-payment or co-insurance portion which will be collected at each session. Please be aware that you might also have a deductible which would make it your responsibility to pay the full amount of the negotiated rate that your insurance company would normally pay to me.

If I do not participate with your insurance but you would like to use your insurance to cover our sessions, your insurance company may reimburse you according to guidelines they have established for out of network providers. I will fill out forms and provide you with whatever assistance I can in helping you receive the benefits to which you are entitled; however, you (not your insurance company) are responsible for full payment of my fees. It is very important that you find out exactly what mental health services your insurance policy covers. You will be expected to pay for each session at the time it is held, unless we agree otherwise.

Cash, check, or electronic payment (Venmo, Zelle) is preferred, but I also accept major credit cards. Payment schedules for other professional services will be agreed to when they are requested. If your account has not been paid for more than 60 days and arrangements for payment have not been agreed upon, I have the option of using legal means to secure the payment. This may involve hiring a collection agency. If such legal action is necessary, its costs will be included in the claim. There will be a $30 charge for the return of a check from the bank. By signing this agreement, you acknowledge responsibility for this account and guarantee payment of all charges against this account.

Meetings/Cancellations. When a psychotherapy session is scheduled this hour is considered blocked for a particular client. Thus, a late cancellation results in an open hour, inconvenience, and a loss of revenue. Once an appointment hour is scheduled, you will be expected to pay a $75 cancellation fee unless you provide 24 hours advance notice of cancellation. Insurance companies will not reimburse for missed appointments. If there is an emergency, illness, or circumstance beyond your control, I will be flexible on a case-by-case basis. If it is possible, I will try to reschedule the appointment for later in the week. If you arrive late for a scheduled appointment, only the remainder of the session will be available. If I run late with a prior appointment, you will still receive the full session. If local schools (Fairfax county) are delayed or closed due to weather conditions, you can contact me via phone, text, or email about whether our appointment needs to be rescheduled.

Contacting Me. I am often not immediately available by telephone, text, or email. When I am unavailable, you may leave a message on my voicemail or send me a text or email. I will make every effort to return your message on the same day you leave it, with the exception of weekends and holidays. Specific policies about these modes of contact are elaborated below.

- Telephone. No charges will be assessed for brief or occasional telephone calls or for telephone conversations for the purpose of scheduling an appointment. However, if there are frequent telephone calls lasting more than 10 minutes, I will charge a prorated rate for the time based on my full fee of $225. I will return telephone calls as promptly as my schedule allows. Calls received on a Friday or during the weekend will be returned the following business day.
- Texting. Clients may use cell phone texting to contact me for scheduling purposes and for other non-clinical communications. Be advised that messaging platforms are not HIPAA compliant or secure. I do not use text messaging for discussion of clinical issues and it should not be used for communication in emergency situations.
- Email. The email address anna@amluccaphd.com is HIPAA compliant. This means that I have entered into a written agreement with my hosting service that they will appropriately safeguard electronic Protected Health Information (ePHI). Despite this protection, the possibility of email communications being accessed by unauthorized individuals is a real danger that can compromise the privacy and confidentiality of such communication. For these reasons, I only use email for setting up appointment times or contacting a client who has missed an appointment. I do not use it for discussion of clinical issues and it should not be used for communication in emergency situations. If you communicate confidential or private information via e-mail, I will assume that you have made an informed decision, and will honor your desire to communicate on such matters via e-mail. Please know that any e-mails I receive from clients and former clients along with any responses that are related to treatment and diagnosis may be kept in treatment records. Emails also become a part of your legal records and may be revealed in cases where your records are summoned by a legal entity. Please be assured that current and former client e-mail information is always kept secure and not shared with any third parties.

Emergencies. If you have a medical or mental health emergency and feel you are a danger to yourself or someone else, please go to your nearest emergency room or call 911. I do not have the ability to provide 24-hour emergency contact. If you believe that your situation will require a therapist that has a 24-hour support, please discuss this with me as soon as possible.

Litigation Limitation. It is the stated philosophy of this practice that I do not participate in lawsuits of any type on a plaintiff's behalf, unless compelled to do so by subpoena or court order. It is agreed that should there be legal proceedings (such as, but not limited to divorce and custody disputes, injuries, lawsuits, etc...) neither you nor anyone else acting on your behalf will call me to testify in court or at any proceeding, nor will a disclosure of the psychotherapy records be requested unless otherwise agreed upon in advance. If agreed upon, additional fees will apply for testifying in legal proceedings.

Professional Records. The laws and standards of my profession require that I keep treatment records. You are entitled to receive a copy of your records, or I can prepare a summary for you instead. Because these are professional records, they can be misinterpreted by and/or upsetting to untrained readers. If you wish to see your records, I recommend you review them in my presence so that we can discuss the contents. Clients will be charged a fee for any professional time spent in responding to information requests.

Minors. If you are under 18 years of age, please be aware that the law may provide your parents the right to examine your treatment records. It is my policy to request that I provide parents only with general information about our work together, unless I feel there is a high risk that you will seriously harm yourself or someone else. In this case, I will notify them of my concerns. I will also provide them with a summary of your treatment when it is complete. Before giving them any information, I will discuss the matter with you, if possible, and do my best to handle any objections you may have about it.

Confidentiality. In general, the law protects the privacy of all communications between a client and a psychologist, and I can release information about our work to others only with your written permission. However, there are some situations in which I am legally obligated to take action to protect others from harm, even if I have to reveal some information about a client's treatment. For example, if I believe that a child, elderly, or disabled person is being abused, I am required to file a report with the appropriate state agency. If I believe that a client is threatening serious bodily harm to another, I may be required to take protective actions. These actions may include notifying the potential victim, contacting the police, or seeking hospitalization for the client. If the client threatens to harm himself or herself, I may be obligated to seek hospitalization for him or her or to contact family members or others who can help provide protection. I will make every effort to fully discuss it with you before taking any action.

You should also know that disclosure of some confidential information (typically your diagnosis and type of mental health service provided) may be required by your health insurance carrier in order to process the claims. I have no control or knowledge over what insurance companies do with this information.

I may occasionally find it helpful to consult other professionals about a case. During a consultation, I make every effort to avoid revealing the identity of my client. The consultant is also legally bound to keep the information confidential.

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
Effective April 14, 2003

This information is being provided as required by the federal Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996.

This notice describes how medical/mental health information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

I have a duty to maintain privacy of your health information and to provide you with this notice. You will be asked to sign a Consent Form. Once you have signed this form, I may use or disclose your Protected Health Information for purposes of diagnosis, treatment, obtaining payment, or to conduct healthcare operations. For example, if you choose to use insurance, to receive payment I must provide information about you to your insurance company.

Other permitted and required uses and disclosures that may be made without your consent, authorization or opportunity to object:

Abuse or Neglect: If I suspect abuse or neglect of a child or elder, I am mandated to make a report to the appropriate public authorities.

Danger: If I suspect you are in imminent danger of harming yourself or someone else, I am mandated to make a report to the person at risk and to the public authorities.

Legal Proceedings: I may disclose Protected Health Information in response to a court order or subpoena or in certain other legal proceedings.

You have the following rights regarding health information I maintain about you:

Right to Inspect and Copy: You have the right to inspect and request copies of information that may be used to make decisions about your care. Usually this includes demographic and billing records but does not include psychotherapy notes. To inspect and/or receive copies of information, you must submit a request in writing. If you request a copy of information, I may charge a fee for the cost of copying, mailing or other supplies associated with your request. I must respond to your request within fifteen days of receipt.

Right to Amend: If you feel that health information about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask me to amend the information. You have the right to request an amendment for as long as the information is kept by me. Your request for amendment must be in writing and must provide a reason supporting your request.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures: You have the right to request an Accounting of Disclosures I have made of information about you. You must submit your request in writing to the above address. Your request must state a time period for the disclosures, which may not be longer than six years and may not include dates before April 14, 2003.

Right to Request Restriction on Uses and Disclosures: You may request that disclosure of confidential information be limited. If I am unable to agree to that restriction, we can discuss other options, such as referral to another counselor.

Right to Limit Reception of Confidential Information: For example, you may request that I only contact you at a certain telephone number or address. You do not have to give a reason for your request.

Right to a paper copy of this Notice.

Other uses and disclosures of Protected Health Information and any disclosure of Psychotherapy Notes will be made only with your written authorization. After such authorization is given, you may revoke that authorization at any time. This Notice may be amended as needed to comply with federal, state and professional requirements.

If you believe your privacy rights have been violated, please let me know either in writing or by talking with me. Such a complaint will not result in any retaliation by me. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of the United States Department of Health and Human Services at 200 Independence Ave SW, Washington, DC 20201.
