

TOMMY JUNIOR

It's all about the music...

The Performer

Since 2021, Tommy Junior has dedicated himself to providing top tier musical experiences through the journey of electronic music. His preferred genres are deep house, organic house, melodic house, dark disco, and indie dance.

Whether poolside or speakeasy, main stage or underground, Tommy's elegant mixing evokes an emotional response that is best experienced through movement and dance. Yet, his extensive collection from multiple genres also elevates the ambience of events that demand sophisticated taste in music.

The Entrepreneur

Tommy has hosted over 200 events in the Washington, DC, area - from curated, private listening sessions to open decks and networking events to local and regional DJ showcases.

More than 100 local DJs and producers have performed at his events

He is also the co-host of 'The Open Decks Podcast.'

The RPG Collective

Tommy Junior and OverBy9 (fka Over9000?!) created RPG to be a collective that would be defined by exploration, curiosity, and risk-taking. Since then, RPG has added Ryan Soho and Kattco to its team.

The collective thrives on its B2B concepts, its inclusivity of DJs who want to explore new genres, and its adventurous spirit to bring DC sound and energy to venues well beyond its hometown.
