Front book covers are not included in the publishing package. We have access to over 1.9 million pictures and hundreds of fonts. We can create your front cover using one of those pictures or any picture you provide. ($25 fee) Would you like us to create the front cover? Yes No

Would you like us to send you a list of recommended cover designers?

Yes No

We will assign a customer number (if necessary) and send a publishing agreement. After signing the agreement and paying the $100 publishing agreement fee, please do the following:

- Copyright:

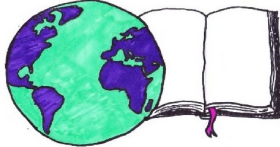

We will register your book with the U.S. Copyright Office. The wait time for a copyright certificate is up to 12 months. Protect your work by printing and mailing it to yourself via certified mail prior to submitting it to us. Do not open the envelope. Store it in a safe place.

- The Book:

We will send you a Unilateral Non-Disclosure Agreement. Submit the executed agreement and the final version of the book in Word format. The book must be saved as one document. Please don't save each chapter as individual documents. Be sure the document name includes the book title and your name.

- Book Cover:

Send us the front book cover and any image you would like on the back cover (if applicable).

Submission Information Form

- About the Author:
Submit the information you would like consumers to know about the author(s).
- About the Book:
Write a synopsis about the book (300 words maximum). These words will appear on the back cover.
- Images:
If you would like to include images in your book, insert place-holders in your text to indicate preferred placement. Provide a list of where you would prefer the images to be placed as well.

The full cost is $695. You can pay in full or make payments of $50 or more over the next 10 months. We will continue the publishing steps along the way. Once you pay the total, your work will be released.

Publishing Agreement Fee is non-refundable. If the publishing agreement is cancelled, payments made on the Publishing Package are refundable, minus incurred expenses.

Please send the completed submission information form to us via email. After you complete the form, make sure you "save as PDF" before you send it. If you're unable to do so, please print and scan it.
