A surety bond (pronounced "shoo-ruh-tee") is this legally binding agreement involving two, three parties—the Principal, the Obligee, and the Surety. In this agreement, the Surety provides a financial guarantee to the Obligee if the Principal defaults on their obligations, such as not being able to fulfill the terms of their contract or not complying, conformity, with international governing laws and regulations. $20,000.00 USD one time fee to converse further. Non escrow. True Transparency. Logistics and solutions. Appeasement. Diplomatic diplomacy mandate. For all debts public and private.
