

Hope for Appalachia Virginia Inc

What Kind of HFA Missionary Will YOU Be?

BUILDERS

These missionaries attend building parties and build Hope Boxes and do quality control.

GATHERERS

These missionaries gather supplies for Hope Boxes and our Christmas Bags to bless the children in the schools we serve.

LOADERS

These missionaries help us load our trucks and trailers as we prepare to travel on the Spring and Christmas Trips.

EVANGELISTS

These missionaries travel with us to Kentucky to share the Gospel.

TRAVELING MISSIONARIES

These missionaries travel with us to Kentucky to provide logistic support while we are in the schools.

PRAYER WARRIORS

These missionaries faithfully pray for the children, teachers, administration and the mission. When we travel in the spring and fall these missionaries cover us in prayer for hearts to be open and the name of Jesus to be shared in a mighty way!

SEAMSTRESSES

These missionaries make blankets, little dresses, shorts, pillowcases and crochet animals for the children.

HANDS & FEET TEAM

These missionaries collect supplies from our drop off locations and deliver them to our church to be packed!

CHAPLAINS

These missionaries are traveling missionaries that provide leadership to our teams while we are on mission in Kentucky.

THE COMFORTERS

These missionaries travel with us to Kentucky and care for our traveling missionaries by providing encouragement, preparing meals and praying for the teams.

TRANSPORTERS

These missionaries travel with us to Kentucky and drive trucks and trailers of Hope Boxes, supplies, and Christmas items. They travel with us on the Christmas and Spring Trips.

THE FAITHFUL GIVERS

These missionaries faithfully provide funding for Hope Boxes and logistics.