

THE HOLY TRINITY

Go, therefore,
and make disciples
of all nations,
baptizing them
in the name of The FATHER, and of
The SON,
and of
The HOLY SPIRIT,
teaching them
to observe all that I have commanded you.

What is Memorial Day?

Originally called Decoration Day, Memorial Day is a day of remembrance for those who have lost their lives in our nation's service. Though some form of Memorial Day has been celebrated in various areas of the country beforehand, Memorial Day was officially proclaimed by General John Logan on May 5, 1868 and was observed later that month on May 30 when flowers were placed on the graves of both Union and Confederate soldiers who were buried at Arlington Cemetery.

THE HOLY TRINITY

Beginning in Advent, which is the birth of a new church year, and continuing through to Pentecost, we are asked to follow Mary's lead by treasuring and pondering every-thing that God has done for us: God's plan for creation, his plan to rescue us through Jesus, and his plan to lead and guide the church through the power of the Holy Spirit until Jesus comes again.

Today, as we celebrate Trinity Sunday, we mark a change in direction. Today's feast acts as a kind of a bridge between the first half of the church year, when we follow the path of salvation history, and the second half, when we are asked to respond to the salvation Jesus won for us.

So today we cross the bridge. We've commemorated so much since Advent, and now it's time to respond. And appropriately, Trinity Sunday sets the perfect stage for our response. On this day, as we ponder and treasure the way God has revealed himself to us, we are confronted with a mystery, we might be tempted to ask why God would even care to reveal himself and his love to a people whom he created but who have turned away from him in sin.

It's only when we connect with the Holy Spirit that we come to appreciate the one word that most clearly describes our Triune God: love. Love is the reason why God creates. Love is the reason why Jesus saved us. Love is the reason why the Holy Spirit has chosen to live in our hearts and mold us into the image of Christ. And love is the reason why God will never give up on us.

So ask yourself today, "How can I best respond to the God who has been so good and kind to me?" But be sure also to ponder God's love, the love that has moved him to do everything he has ever done for you.

"Pour out you love upon us. O Lord, so that we might know you and walk in your presence each day."

LA SANTÍSIMA TRINIDAD "PADRE, HIJO Y ESPÍRITU SAN-

Este Dios único en el que creemos que no se nos ha dado a conocer solo en sus obras, sino que se nos ha dado a conocer El mismo, hablándonos en la persona del Hijo y por la guía de su Espíritu. Es un Dios que nos ha dado a conocer su vida más íntima, revelándonos su vida trinitaria. El mismo nos ha revelado – que de no ser así no hubiéramos llegado a saberlo – que es un solo Dios en tres personas, "que no se reparten la divinidad única, sino que cada una de ellas es Dios íntegramente" (Catecismo de la Iglesia Católica, 253). Por eso, el prefacio de la Misa de hoy nos hace proclamar: "Lo que creemos de tu gloria, porque tu lo revelaste, eso mismo lo afirmamos de tu Hijo y también del Espíritu Santo, sin diferencia ni Bautizados en el Dios único y trino, somos movidos por el Espíritu de Dios para poder invocar a Dios con el nombre de Padre y para poder alcanzar – con Cristo – la herencia de los hijos de Dios: la comunión con la vida divina, la participación en la glorificación de Cristo, que se nos dará en nuestro nuevo y definitivo nacimiento, por la resurrección que esperamos.
