PRAYER FOR THE NEW SCHOOL YEAR

LORD, as our children begin the new school year, we pray that You would go right alongside them.

Help them to do their very best with both academics and behavior in school.

Send our kids at least 1 good friend who encourages and supports them within the halls of learning.

Put caring educators, para-professionals, and administrators into our children's lives.

God of all, we also pray for every person staffing our children's schools.

From the janitors and cafeteria personnel,
to the teachers, professors, aids, and principals,
they all need Your strength and clarity to help them start off the school year right.
Give them wisdom along with compassion to equip them for every student they encounter.

We pray a spirit of cooperation over this school year.
Foster a unity of purpose between parents, teachers, and administrators.

Help us to quickly get into a routine that stabilizes our families.
Grant us all regular, sweet sleep so we are fresh for each new day.

Finally, Lord, we ask that You keep our children safe at school.
Whether it be emotionally, physically, or spiritually,
we pray Your protection over them afresh this year.
Remind them to treat others the way they would like to be treated.
Guard them from words and deeds that threaten their well-being.

Thank You that we can trust You with every detail.
We pray this all in Jesus' Name. Amen.
