

CODE OF CONDUCT LEOPOLD ANGLING AND AQUATIC CLUB (LAAC)

CODE OF CONDUCT FOR LAAC MEMBERS, VISITORS AND OTHERS

Membership of LAAC is a privilege and carries with it a responsibility to uphold the club's reputation and standing in the community at every opportunity.

There are many users of the LAAC facility, therefore Members, Stakeholders, Visitors or others may not engage in conduct that brings disrepute to LAAC or is contrary to the Constitution and By-Laws of LAAC. All, however so involved in LAAC have a duty to ensure that they cause no adverse impact on any of these users because of their actions at LAAC or in the wider community and environment. Members, Visitors and Stakeholders must behave in a manner that facilitates, enhances and ensures the:

- reputation and standing of LAAC;
- amenity of other Members of LAAC;
- health, safety and comfort of staff employed at LAAC;
- enjoyment of visitors to LAAC; and
- physical property and facilities provided by LAAC.

Members, Visitors and Stakeholders shall not engage in conduct that:

- breaches accepted standards of public behaviour or the law;
- jeopardises the health and safety of Members, Stakeholders and Visitors;
- causes offence to Members, Staff, Stakeholders and Visitors;
- lessens the amenity and enjoyment of Members, Staff, Stakeholders and Visitors;
- damages, destroys, or lessens the value of LAAC assets;
- damages, destroys, or lessens the value of property owned by other Club Members; or facilitates the publication of material and/or comments (on any platform) that is obscene, defamatory, threatening, harassing, discriminatory, brand-bashing, hateful, disparaging or unfavourable about the Club (and/or is likely to bring the Club into disrepute or ridicule) and or about any other Member, Visitor or Stakeholder including its officers, directors, employees, agents, clients, partners, suppliers, competitors or contractors.

Any Member, Visitor or Stakeholder bringing the Club into disrepute may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with Rules of the LAAC Constitution. Any Visitor or Stakeholder breaching this code may be asked to leave the premises immediately. Any Visitor or Stakeholder who does not recognise or demonstrate an ongoing understanding of this code of conduct may be asked to stay away indefinitely.
