October 15th, 2025 Why the Saints Still Matter Today

What can the lives of the Saints teach us about following Christ today? In this episode of Practicing Catholic, we explore why the Saints are more than distant historical figures—they are models, guides, and spiritual “big brothers and sisters” who show us how to grow in holiness. 45 min.

October 22nd, 2025 Saint Ignatius of Antioch | Catholic Saints

A Father of the early Church, St. Ignatius of Antioch is an incredible model of Christian discipleship. He is also one of Dr. Ben Akers' favorite saints. Sit down with Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor Kemp as they discuss this remarkable bishop, who died a martyr for his fidelity to Christ.

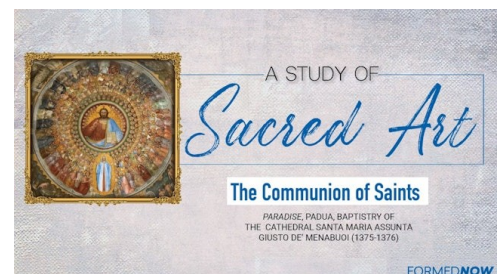

October 29th, 2025 Who is St. Jude? | Catholic Saints
Dr. Tim Gray and Dr. James Prothro discuss this lesser-known apostle.

November 5th, 2025 The Communion

of Saints | Sacred Art Dr. Ben Akers and Taylor

Kemp sit down with different pieces of Sacred Art to discuss their theological meanings and how they can speak to us today.

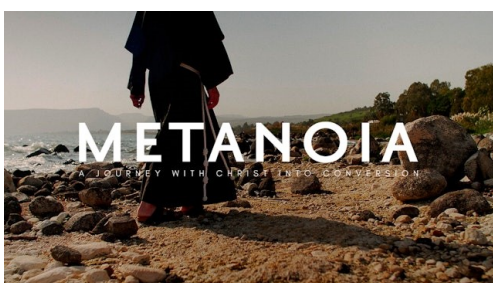

November 12th, 2025 Pier Giorgio Frassati: If I Didn't Have Love

(Part One) This movie depicts Pier Giorgio Frassati's life. Viewer discretion is advised as there are a few instances of profanity and a brief scene and section of dialogue dealing with mature themes. A classic Italian movie re-mastered and re-released to celebrate the canonization in 2025 of Blessed Pier Giorgio Frassati (1901-1925). Frassati was a handsome, athletic and fun-loving young man from a rich, aristocratic Italian family who turned from a life of privilege to one devoted to working with the poor, suffering and homeless, and was a courageous witness of Christian faith and charity to many others. An avid mountain climber, Frassati exemplified a great love for life, nature and humanity. He was a leader of youth in Italy in Catholic social justice and charitable organizations, and is the patron saint of World Youth Days. He died of the polio virus at the age of 24. Total Time: 2 hours Sub titles
