Gospel Meditation: Matthew 14:22-33

Father John Muir

As a young, newly ordained priest, I admired a senior priest who was gifted, beloved, & had changed countless lives. But soon I learned that he had fallen in catastrophic & destructive ways. The painful juxtaposition of good & evil was complex to process. How could someone so seemingly good also be so broken and deceptive? It forced me to confront a sobering truth: leadership in the Church is no guarantee against weakness or sin.

Peter teaches that truth in this week's Gospel. When he sees Jesus walking on the sea, Peter does what leaders do. He goes first. "Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water." But when he sees how strong the wind is, he becomes frightened and, beginning to sink, cries out, "Lord, save me." Immediately, Jesus stretches out his hand and catches him.

St. Thomas Aquinas observes that

Peter overcomes the greater danger of the waves but falters

before the lesser threat of the wind. This is the paradox leaders often face. It is not always the great trials that undo us, but the smaller, quieter temptations, such as subtle fears and compromises,

that lead us to sink.

The good news is that Jesus does not abandon Peter.

He saves him before it is too late. Our frail humanity lives within a rhythm of grace, risk, failure, and mercy. Jesus helps Peter overcome both the obvious and hidden sources of fear, and he promises to do the same for us.

So, let us pray for all, especially our spiritual leaders.

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time
Lord, let us see your kindness, and grant us your salvation.

It's Festival (planning) Time!

We need some volunteers to assist with set up the morning of the festival, from 9 am to 11:30 am. You would be stocking the bar with ice, setting up the food/drink tables, placing the auction items out. If this is something you can do, please contact Athena.

The parking area of Saint Joseph's is in need of repair. On September 1st through 3rd, a crew will be sealing & stripping the parking lot & street parking area. To ensure the best results, the parking area will be closed for the Friday & Sunday masses on September 4th and 6th. Please park across the street from church or find other parking areas. Please use the front door entrance on those days.

Prayer in Faith in Trial

Dear God, In this time of difficulty, be with me. When I don't feel Your presence or hear Your voice, sustain me. When I don't see the path ahead, guide me. When I don't know the next step, support me. In every day and in every moment, be my strength. Amen.

Annual Fall Festival - Hawaiian Style!

We will start with a Hawaiian plate lunch: Kalua Pork, white rice, macaroni salad and dessert! There will be an auction and a raffle, with chances to win a cord of wood or a Yeti cooler. We will have free face painting and kids games. There will be a bar for the adults. Please mark your calendars and join us for an afternoon of fun memories!

House Blessing!

Catholics who move to a new residence often wish to have their dwelling blessed, to call the favor & help of God upon those who live in the house & those who will enter it. The Roman Ritual (Book of Blessings) provides two formats: one during the Easter or Christmas season (for the Epiphany) & one for Ordinary Time. Those who live in the home must be present. A priest, deacon or lay person can administer the blessing, although if a lay person does so they must use the rites accorded to lay ministers in the Roman Ritual. A house blessing includes Scripture readings, intercessions and a prayer of blessing.

Please pray for the sick in our community, and their family members.

Catholic Trivia Answer: Michelangelo

St. Clare of Assisi

As a girl in 12th century Italy, Clare heard the legendary St. Francis preaching in the square below her family home. Inspired, Clare snuck away in the middle of the night to join Francis and his followers. Francis cut her hair like the men and gave her a rough tunic and veil to wear. For the sake of propriety, Clare was placed in a Benedictine nun monastery for several years. As more women were drawn to the simple spirituality, a new order was founded, now known as the Poor Clares. Despite requests from the pope himself to relax their vow of poverty, Clare stood firm in following the spirit of St. Francis. Clare's reputation for virtue spread and attracted women -- rich and poor alike -- to the new order that still exists today.

Serenity!

The word "serenity" is only found once in the Catechism of the Catholic Church: in the section describing the effects of the Sacrament of Reconciliation, quoting the Council of Trent when it declared that a good confession "is usually followed by peace and serenity of conscience." (CCC 1468)

This may give the impression that serenity is not a foremost Catholic virtue, but the succinctness of the Catechism's reference is actually proof of serenity's importance.

What is serenity? It is an attitude of calm, one that can only be identified when contrasted with turmoil. It is stillness in a storm. It is Christ, walking steadily across the raging waves.

That the Catechism links it exclusively with reconciliation to God tells us all we need to know about this virtue. Where can we find calm in turmoil, stillness in storm? Where can we find serenity?

There is only one place: the merciful embrace of God in His sacraments.
