Matthew 21:28—32
Father John Muir

This Sunday, Jesus tells a short, uncomfortable story. A father asks two sons to go work in the vineyard. One says no, but later goes. The other says yes, but never shows up. It is a parable so simple, we almost miss how sharp it is. Jesus is clear about who it is for. This is not aimed at pagans or outsiders. It is aimed squarely at religious people, people who know the right words & sound obedient.

Jesus is not condemning unbelief so much as disobedience. The polite hypocrisy that says the right things while quietly resisting the Father's will. St. John Chrysostom put it bluntly, “Not words, but deeds, are what God requires. Nothing so exasperates Him as insincere obedience, while nothing so delights Him as repentance.” Every disciple must face that. Do I publicly profess faith in Christ while privately resisting what He asks of me? It is easy to say, I believe in God in my heart. But if faith never becomes action, it slowly becomes an illusion.

Jesus does not expose hypocrisy to shame us. He reveals it to heal us. He wants our hearts and our deeds to speak the same word, to let our yes truly mean yes. Like the first son who initially refused but afterwards changed his mind and went, Jesus invites us to step into the Father's will, however late, however imperfectly.

Challenge: Where are your public faith & private obedience divided? Where do you say, I will go, but never enter the vineyard? Go, get to work, even if it is late. The Father's vineyard is still open.

WELCOME!
Bishop Albert Anasthas,
We are so happy to have you visit our parish this weekend. We are honored that you are here with us.
Thank you for coming, celebrating masses & attending our Annual Fall Festival.

Catholic Trivia

Question: What was the relationship among the three children who witnessed Mary's apparition at Fátima?

Answer on page 3

It is with profound joy & thanksgiving to Almighty God that St. Joseph's Mission Catholic Church announces the entrance of Kristin Millhoff into the fullness of the Catholic faith through the reception of the sacred Sacraments of Baptism, First Holy Communion, & Confirmation.

The Holy Sacraments will be conferred on Sunday, September 27, at 9:00 a.m. All are warmly invited to join in this blessed occasion and to offer prayers for Kristin as she begins her life in Christ and grows in fidelity to His Holy Church.

Welcome Home, Kristin.

A light brunch will immediately follow.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

What is that? It is the path that non-Christians & baptized Christians of other faiths take to become Catholic. It is also the path that Catholics who did not receive the Sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation use to prepare for & receive those sacraments. It is the way that practicing Catholics can learn more about their faith & people who are just curious can find out what Catholics really believe. Come meet the OCIA team members & fellow seekers on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 pm in the All Saints Parish Hall. Please call Dan Garcia at 209-840-2644 for more information.

Secular Carmelites (OCDS) are lay Catholics who belong to the Discalced Carmelite Order while living ordinary lives in the world. The Modesto community meets monthly & welcomes those who feel drawn to Carmelite spirituality. We will be starting classes in November for newcomers. If interested, contact us thru our website. www.OCDSModesto.com/contact-us.

All Saints Parish Pantry

Our Parish Pantry operates every week because of your donations & volunteer hours.

We always accept WalMart or any other grocery store gift cards. If you want to donate food, we are in need of: corn, green beans, peas, mixed veggies, soup, Top Ramen, Cup O Soup, pasta, spaghetti sauce, tuna, diced tomatoes, tomato paste, refried beans, garbanzo beans. Please, no more egg cartons.

Catholic Trivia

Answer: They were a sister, a brother, and a cousin.

St. Jerome - September 30

St. Jerome (345-420) was the greatest biblical scholar of his day, conversant with Latin, Greek, & Hebrew. He set about translating the books of the Bible from their original languages into Latin. Jerome eventually became Pope Damasus' (366-384) personal secretary. In the West, Latin was overtaking Greek as the language of the people. The pope desired a translation of the Bible that would be accurately translated into the language & idiom of the people. Previous Latin translations existed, but they were poor in quality.

Jerome set about this task & spent the rest of his life meticulously translating. He is credited with the translation of the Bible known as the Vulgate, a Latin translation intended to address the needs of the common people. That translation became the only one used by Catholics until modern times. Catholics did not actively engage in a similar process until 1943, when Pius XII allowed Catholic scholars once again to go back to the original languages and translate an accurate and meticulous version of the Bible. We carry on that tradition to this very day.
