The Sign of Peace

Why do Catholics give the sign of peace to one another at Mass?

The sign of peace is a part of the Mass that takes place immediately after the Lord's Prayer. Inspired by Jesus' words to his first followers, we stand together in a spirit of communion to pray as Jesus taught us: "Our Father who art in heaven..." In this, we call for the coming of God's kingdom in all its fullness & ask that God provides for our needs - "Give us, this day, our daily bread" - to forgive our sins & to bring us to the joy of heaven. It is almost natural, that the rite of peace would follow. As the celebrant prays that Christ's peace will fill our hearts, our communities, the Church, & the whole world, we extend to those around us a sign of peace as a symbol of the communion that we experience now & will experience forever in the fullness of the reign of God.

We are also reminded of Jesus' teachings that if we are at prayer & remember that a brother or sister is holding something against us, we are to go & seek reconciliation with them before we continue our prayer (see Mt. 5:23). And so, the sign of peace also reminds us of the need to truly be in communion - united in love & peace - with God & one another before we approach the altar to receive the Eucharist.

So, the next time you're at Mass & the time comes for the sign of peace, remember that this is a moment to celebrate the gift of Christ's peace that each of us has received from God & to pass that peace along to those around us. We need this moment to practice, because this is also the same peace of Christ that we are instructed to carry out into the world at the end of Mass when the priest or deacon says to us, "Go, in peace, glorifying the Lord by your life."

Blessing for Life

What wonder You have gifted us, Lord, in the blessing of life!

May Your name be praised with every movement, every heartbeat, every breath. Protect life in every stage, age, ability, creed, & capacity.

Pour Your mercy upon us this day, helping us to live deeply and love well. Amen.

Magnanimity

The virtue of magnanimity emboldens souls to pursue great things, but protects them from seeking greatness itself. St. Joseph exhibited magnanimity in protecting Mary from shame, knowing this was the will of God.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

What is that? It is the path that non-Christians & baptized Christians of other faiths take to become Catholic. It is also the path that Catholics who did not receive the Sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation use to prepare for & receive those sacraments. It is the way that practicing Catholics can learn more about their faith & people who are just curious can find out what Catholics really believe. Come meet the OCIA team members & fellow seekers on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 pm in the All Saints Parish Hall. Please call Dan Garcia at 209-840-2644 for more information.

Secular Carmelites (OCDS)

are lay Catholics who belong to the Discalced Carmelite Order while living ordinary lives in the world. The Modesto community meets monthly & welcomes those who feel drawn to Carmelite spirituality. We will be starting classes in November for newcomers. If interested, contact us thru our website. www.OCDSModesto.com/contact-us.

All Saints Parish Pantry

Our Parish Pantry operates every week because of your donations & volunteer hours.

We always accept WalMart or any other grocery store gift cards. If you want to donate food, we are in need of: corn, green beans, peas, mixed veggies, soup, Top Ramen, Cup O Soup, pasta, spaghetti sauce, tuna, diced tomatoes, tomato paste, refried beans, garbanzo beans. Please, no more egg cartons.

Catholic Trivia

Answer: The Body of Christ/ The Blood of Christ

St. Bruno of Cologne

St. Bruno, born in 1030, is also known as St. Bruno the Carthusian for the monastic order he founded. He studied in Reims & was ordained in Cologne in 1055. In 1057, he returned to Reims to lead the school, a post he held for almost 20 years. He was made chancellor of the church of Reims in 1075 but left soon after in protest at the behavior of the new bishop, Manasses de Gournai, who was finally deposed in 1080. St. Bruno refused the nomination to replace de Gournai, as he intended to retire to live in solitude & prayer. He had a vision in a dream to go with Bishop (later Saint) Hugh of Grenoble. St. Bruno, Hugh, and five other religious settled at Chartreuse and founded the Carthusian order in 1084.

This first period of monastic life was not to last long. St. Bruno was called to help Urban II, a former student of his, against the antipope Guibert of Ravenna and the hostile Holy Roman Emperor Henry IV. While working with Urban II, he rejected another offer to become bishop, this time of Calabria. Eventually, St. Bruno was allowed to return to monastic life. Count Roger of Sicily and Calabria befriended St. Bruno and the monks of his order, granting them the land where they founded St. Mary's at La Torre. The order was known for its strict asceticism, poverty, and prayer, and its unique organization combining the life of the hermit with that of the collective life of traditional monks.

St. Bruno wrote several commentaries on the psalms & on St. Paul's epistles. He died on October 6, 1101, and was never formally canonized because his order renounces all public honors. However, in 1514, Pope Leo X granted permission for Carthusians to celebrate his feast, and his name was added to the Roman calendar in 1623.
