PENTECOST

GOSPEL MEDITATION - John 20:19-23
 "He breathed on them, said, 'Receive the Holy Spirit. Whose sins you forgive are forgiven, and whose sins you retain are retained.'" (John 20:22-23)

For those of us who go to confession regularly, there is often a familiar frustration: "Why do I keep confessing the same sins?" It can feel like a loop, cleansed but unchanged.

Pentecost reveals a hopeful perspective. When the Risen Jesus breathes on his ashamed & fearful disciples & gives them the Holy Spirit, he echoes Genesis, when God breathes life into Adam. This is not just primarily the removal of guilt, but new creation. In confession, we receive more than forgiveness.

We receive a fresh outpouring, the breath of the Spirit, and a renewed mission. Jesus does not say to us, "You're forgiven, now go back to your old life." He says, so to speak, "As the Father has sent me, so I send you." (John 20:21)

That is why penance is not just saying a few prayers. It is reorientation. It is the Spirit summoning us to live differently: with mercy & healing.

Just as Adam was sent into the world, & the Apostles were sent out after Pentecost, we are sent from the confessional — not just clean, but consecrated.

Pentecost Challenge: After your next confession, ask the Holy Spirit for one way you can participate in Christ's healing will for you. Then take one small, concrete step, and do not look back.

— Father John Muir

Faith

Question: Someone close to me has left the Church. How should I reach out to them?

Answer: For many of us, this is a challenging question. When people we love leave the Church, we may not always know how to relate to them. Are some conversation topics off limits? Are there certain behaviors or decisions we can't support in good conscience? When someone is lost, Jesus shows two different attitudes in his parables.

One is actively seeking. Don't give up on this person & their life of faith. Ask them about their spiritual journey. Invite them to spend time with you in faith settings, as appropriate, & outside of them too. Continue in relationships with those you love.

The other attitude Jesus shows is consistent witness in the waiting. In the parable of the Prodigal Son, the father doesn't go after the son. He waits for his return. However, the son knows his father is trustworthy. He remembers his father's fair treatment of the hired hands and knows it is safe to return, despite all he has done.

Your ability to change someone is quite small. However, you can change yourself. Make sure you consistently treat others with kindness, compassion, and respect. If your loved one wants a deeper conversation, they'll know you are a person to trust, a place to which they can return.

Please pray for the Sick in our Parish, and their family members.

All Saints Parish Pantry

Our Parish pantry is 100% operational because of your donations and volunteer hours.

We need monetary donations to support our Parish Pantry, which is more than just food for those in need. We have to pay for water, electricity and housekeeping monthly. There are property taxes, maintenance and repairs that come up as well. If you are seeking a way to give to charity and those less fortunate, please consider a donation to our Parish Pantry.

Catholic Trivia Answer: Trinity Sunday is celebrated on the Sunday after Pentecost.

Our family is so grateful for all of the prayers that were said over this past year for our granddaughter Junie Leage, born at 30 weeks and weighing 1 1/2 pounds. Well, she just celebrated her first birthday and is as healthy as can be! God is good, and so are you. Thanks again!

Aloha

Our festival theme this year is Hawaiian Style! The festival will be on Sunday, September 27th, after morning Mass, at All Saints. We will have food, games for the kids, a raffle and an auction too! Mark your calendar, so that you can be sure to attend - it is always a fun time and a chance to hang out with family and friends before the winter weather arrives.

A planning meeting has been set for June 2, 2026 at 11 am at All Saints - we need lots of help for this event to be successful. Contact Athena with questions.

TIME SHARE NEEDED, PLEASE!

Do you have a timeshare in Hawaii or Mexico? Our Parish festival hosts an auction and a week at a timeshare does really really well as an auction item. Please contact Athena if you are able to help.
