God in Daily Life
How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Whatever your daily work, you have an opportunity to encounter God and to follow His commandments in love. In the New Testament, we see that most of the Apostles didn’t have a previous religious position. They were fishermen, tax collectors, and political activists. St. Paul was a tentmaker. Among the saints, we have doctors, lawyers, farmers, and stay-at-home moms. No matter your daily tasks, God can be present there!

One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead.

Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus’ incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God’s image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn’t remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!

Please Note: Requests for information to be put in the bulletin must be submitted to Athena via email to allstsbookkeeper@gmail.com, no later than 12:00 pm on the Tuesday prior to distribution.

Appeal update (BMA)

An update on our BMA this year. The response so far has been wonderful. We have almost reached our goal of $20,653. We have had 41 people donate, pledging $17,900. We only need $2,753 to reach our goal. With a few more parishioners looking into their hearts (and check-books) to donate what they can, we will reach our GOAL.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

What is that? It is the path that non-Christians & baptized Christians of other faiths take to become Catholic. It is also the path that Catholics who did not receive the Sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation use to prepare for & receive those sacraments. It is the way that practicing Catholics can learn more about their faith & people who are just curious can find out what Catholics really believe. Come meet the OCIA team members & fellow seekers on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 pm in the All Saints Parish Hall. Please call Dan Garcia at 209-840-2644 for more information.

Secular Carmelites (OCDS) are lay Catholics who belong to the Discalced Carmelite Order while living ordinary lives in the world. The Modesto community meets monthly & welcomes those who feel drawn to Carmelite spirituality. We will be starting classes in November for newcomers. If interested, contact us thru our website. www.OCDSModesto.com/contact-us.

All Saints Parish Pantry
Our Parish Pantry operates every week because of your donations & volunteer hours.

We always accept WalMart or any other grocery store gift cards. If you want to donate food, we are in need of: corn, green beans, peas, mixed veggies, soup, Top Ramen, Cup O Soup, pasta, spaghetti sauce, tuna, diced tomatoes, tomato paste, refried beans, garbanzo beans. Please, no more egg cartons.

Catholic Trivia Answer: An Alb.

Honesty

If the question were posed: "Who is God?" a variety of answers could be given, and more than one could be correct. The most succinct, however, would be this: God is truth.

"I am the Way, the Truth and the Life," Jesus tells his disciples (John 14:6). The pursuit of truth, he further instructs, will set them free (John 8:32) from the original untruth uttered and embraced in Eden.

If God is truth, he is honored by truthfulness. Untruthfulness, not surprisingly, is synonymous with disorder and broken relationships among mankind — Eden's everlasting legacy. The virtue of honesty, writes St. Thomas Aquinas, is "a kind of spiritual beauty" which measures the degree to which we honor one another in how we live truthfully (Sum. II:II, 145, Art 1-4).

Honesty is something that must be known interiorly in order to be visible exteriorly: "Teach me your way, O Lord, that I may walk in your Truth" (Psalm 86:11).
