The Most Holy Trinity - John 3:16-18
 Father John Muir

I was 16 years old on a youth group retreat in the mountains. One night, I opened my heart to the message being proclaimed: that God so loved the world that He sent His Son for us. Later, I lay under the pine trees and looked up at the countless stars. They seemed different. No longer cold, distant balls of chemical reactions, they appeared as an expression of God's love, as if He were giving those stars directly to me. The truth of God sending His Son changed how I saw the whole universe.

That is what today's Gospel reveals: "God so loved the world that he gave his only Son." (John 3:16) The universe is not just a whirl of impersonal forces or empty space. At its heart is a gift: the Father eternally giving the Son, not to condemn, but to bring life.

This is not abstract doctrine but deeply personal. God gives His Son for you & me. Each human life is precious enough to be caught up in that eternal gift.

It is in the Mass where we encounter this most directly. In the Word proclaimed, in the assembly gathered, in the priest, and above all in the Eucharist, the Father once again gives His Son. What looks like bread and wine is the drama of the Trinity, laboring to love us here and now.

The Trinity is not a puzzle to solve but the blazing Truth at the center of everything: the Father gives the Son for you and me. Lord, help us to see this more clearly.

Obedience, Explained!
Disobedience was humanity's original sin. Conversely, obedience became the instrument of humanity's reconciliation to God.
Scripture calls man's submission of his own intellect and will to God, the author of revelation, "the obedience of faith." (CCC 143) "To obey in faith is to submit freely to the word that has been heard, because its truth is guaranteed by God, who is Truth itself," we read in the Catechism (CCC 144).
We see perfect obedience shown by Christ amidst his agony in the Garden of Gethsemane. His human will dreads what will come — "My Father, if it is possible, let this cup pass from me" — but his divine will, which is never at odds with his human will, submits to the Truth: "Yet, not as I will, but as you will." (Matthew 26:39). Despite his fear, he embraces the divine will for man to be redeemed, and so we say that he was "obedient unto death." (Philippians 2:8)

Please pray for the Sick in our Parish, and their family members.

All Saints Parish Pantry

Our Parish pantry is 100% operational because of your donations and volunteer hours.
We need monetary donations to support our Parish Pantry, which is more than just food for those in need. We have to pay for water, electricity and housekeeping monthly. There are property taxes, maintenance and repairs that come up as well. If you are seeking a way to give to charity and those less fortunate, please consider a donation to our Parish Pantry.

Catholic Trivia Answer: A Catechumen.

Our family is so grateful for all of the prayers that were said over this past year for our granddaughter Junie Leage, born at 30 weeks and weighing 1 1/2 pounds. Well, she just celebrated her first birthday and is as healthy as can be! God is good, and so are you. Thanks again!
Kelly Leage and family

Our first planning meeting is June 2, 2026 at 11 am at All Saints - we need lots of help for this event. Can you help in the kitchen? Can you setup, cleanup, decorate? We will need help with a cake walk, the kids zone, auction, raffle & more!
Please come to the planning meeting and see what would be a goof fit for you.

TIME SHARE or STR (Short Term Rental)?
Do you have a timeshare or Short Term Rental in Hawaii or Mexico? Maybe in Florida? Or Alaska? How about one locally? Our Parish festival includes an auction and a week's stay at a nice location does very well as an auction item. Please contact Athena if you can help.
