

PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Matthew's Gospel message this weekend is about believers reflecting the "Light of Christ", giving glory to God. The illumination of our hearts is the knowledge of God, in his salvific act of love through his Son Jesus, the anointed one of God. It is the light that was shown to you when you received the lighted candle at your baptism. Only by our basking in the light of Christ can we reflect it, giving glory to God. Jesus says, ". . . your light must shine before men so that they may see goodness in your acts and give praise to your heavenly Father." Jesus said to the rich young man who sought justification for eternal life, "Why do you call me good? No one is good but God alone." And the good has been gifted to you through grace and the gifts of the Holy Spirit. Everytime we participate in the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass, we praise our heavenly Father. Supernatural grace floods our very souls as we share in His divine life. We receive his supreme 'goodness' as light and we reflect it brilliantly before men, giving witness to the glory of God.

Pray always, that your baptismal candle will emanate Christ's light in all you do.

Prayerfully in Christ, Your Pastor,
Fr. Jeffrey Wilson
