Welcome to our “new” pastor, Fr. Chandrasekar Chellian Paulraj! All Saints & St. Joseph is thrilled to receive our new priest.

From an article written by Mandy Howard of the diocese in Raleigh, North Carolina, I’d like to share three of five simple ways our community can ease the transition for new priests.

Blessings,
Lina Marion, Administrative Assistant

Mandy shares “As priests move into new homes and new roles, it’s a perfect time to explore some of the best ways to welcome them.”

3 Ways to Welcome Your New Priest

1. It may seem obvious but say hello and introduce yourself! Some priests may be blessed with an innate ability to remember faces and names after just one meeting, but most would appreciate if you say your name the first several times you meet them. Just remember, you are only meeting one new pastor, he is meeting hundreds of new parishioners.
2. Food is always a wonderful and traditional way to welcome but consider asking about preferences before you cook, bake or buy. Priests have allergies and aversions just like the rest of us, so ask about any dietary restrictions before dropping off goodies. Also, instead of a casserole that may only keep for a short while, consider giving your priest a gift card to your favorite nearby restaurant. If he is new to town, he will appreciate the recommendation. (Also consider recommendations for local bookstores, walking trails and the best place to get a cup of coffee.)
3. Most importantly: Pray for your pastor. Ask God to give your pastor strength and guidance. Your prayer can be anything from devoting a rosary for him to adding him and other parish leaders to your prayer intentions. It is easy to forget, as we see our pastors each week at Mass, just how much they do behind the scenes. They need your support. Whether your parish priest is newly installed or has been around for years, make sure that hospitality is part of your parish profile.

“Welcome one another, then, as Christ welcomed you, for the glory of God.” Romans 15:7

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL the ARCHANGEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle, be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the Power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who wander the earth seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
