Stations of the Cross

In the earliest years of Christianity, the locations central to the story of Holy Week — the Garden of Gethsemane, Calvary, the Holy Sepulcher, and more — were destinations for pilgrims who wanted to experience Christ's sacrificial love for us in a physical way. In the years after the Crusades, pilgrimage to the Holy Land became impossible for most Christians, and the Stations of the Cross was popularized as a devotional means to pray through the passion and death of Christ.

Throughout history, the number of stations has varied, with different traditions focusing on different events. In the 18th century, the number was officially fixed at 14 by Pope Clement XII. These stations are taken from the Gospel accounts of Christ's passion and death, though there are several which are derived from tradition and apocryphal sources, such as the meeting of Mother and Son and St. Veronica wiping the face of Christ.

Stations of the Cross, here in our Parish!

Every Friday during Lent, St. Joseph's will host Stations of the Cross at 8:30 am, before their morning Mass. There is an exception on February 27th, due to the Lenten Reflection with Father Larry.

Every Friday during Lent, All Saints will host Stations of the Cross at 5:30 pm with Soup Supper to follow. Soups will be completely meatless, served with bread & butter.

Please, join us in Christ's journey to Calvary!

ASH WEDNESDAY

Don't Live a Lie—Everyday Stewardship

By: Tracy Earl Welliver, MTS

Jesus said it best in Matthew 5: "Let your 'yes' mean 'yes' and your 'no' mean 'no.'" He was warning his disciples about false oaths, then instructing them on the fullness of the Hebrew laws. We may try to do what we say and say what we mean, but it can be all too easy to fall short. We call ourselves disciples, yet provide evidence to the contrary by our actions (or lack of them).

Even if we feel that we have lied to no one, we may have lied to ourselves. We portray ourselves as generous, thankful, and loving people, yet fail to answer God's call in a situation because we perceive the cost to be too great. Jesus did not simply mean for his message to be about two words. He also meant that when you say you are a disciple, make sure you are a disciple as well.

Ash Wednesday

Good stewards realize they really don't own anything. It all belongs to God. It is not so much that God owns them, but they are not ours because we are called to offer them to him.

The reality is that you and I were born naked and with nothing. We will die naked and with nothing. If we really could possess something material, there would be a way to take it with us. But alas, it all slips through our grasp and passes away. And even though all of us came from dust and to dust we will return, through Jesus Christ we will live forever in a perfect state. The only thing we can take with us? Our hearts and whether or not we loved.

Inquiry Sessions

Stress in Your Marriage?

Retrouvaille is a program for married couples that would love a reboot but it's also for those that feel lonely, disillusioned, frustrated, or angry in their marriage. Some experience coldness, others experience conflict in their relationship, and most don't know how to change the situation or even communicate with their spouse about it. You are not alone. This Catholic program has helped many couples experiencing difficulties in their marriage. For confidential information about or to register for the Modesto Retrouvaille program beginning with a weekend on February 27 - March 1, 2026 call/text 209-410-9395 or visit www.HelpOurMarriage.org

Gather your family, friends, and fellow trivia enthusiasts for an evening of thrilling games, fabulous prizes, and unforgettable memories.

We are blessed to have this year's reflection offered by a gifted and local pastor with exceptional liturgical training and experiences abroad. We are grateful to Fr. Sekar for his caring leadership and support of this event.

Fr. Larry Machado, DO, STL

Pastor, Our Lady of the Assumption, Turlock

Fr. Larry Machado, a Turlock native, first pursued a vocation in medicine, earning his Doctorate in Osteopathic Medicine before discerning a call to the priesthood. He spent several years with the Miles Christi religious community studying humanities and philosophy, later continuing his formation for the Diocese of Stockton at the Pontifical North American College in Rome. There he completed both his Bachelor of Sacred Theology (STB) and his Licentiate in Sacred Theology (STL), specializing in Liturgical Theology. Ordained in 2019, he has served the Diocese of Stockton as Parochial Vicar with devotion, and as of 2023 now shepherds Our Lady of the Assumption Parish.

All are warmly invited to attend this Lenten gathering of prayer and reflection.

Please register by calling the Parish Office at 209.586.3161 (during office hours on Tues-Fri 9am to 1:30pm) for planning of hospitality refreshments.

Luke 1:18 - The Spirit of the Lord is upon me because he anointed me to bring good news to the poor, he has sent me to proclaim release to captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are oppressed

UNBOUND SUMMARY

UNBOUND: A Model for Healing and Deliverance by Neal Lozano

"Picture a locked door. Opening that door represents liberation from spiritual bondage. This door has five locks, each requiring a key. As a believer in Christ, you have all the keys you need to be free from the influence of evil spirits." (Unbound, page 53)

Freedom is so fundamental to our humanity that we are told in Galatians 5:1, "It is for freedom that Christ has set us free." It is through our union with Jesus, the Son of God, that we are restored to true freedom. "Now the Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom" (2 Corinthians 3:17).

The Holy Spirit is the love of God poured into our hearts (Romans 5:5). He is the Spirit of the Lord; He is the life of God Himself, making his home in us. The Spirit of God brings us into intimate relationship with our Father and thus restores us to full freedom.

"And because you are sons, God has sent the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, 'Abba! Father!' So through God you are no longer a slave but a son, and if a son then an heir" (Galatians 4:6-7).

Because of sin, our parents, (even the best of parents) and many others have failed to represent the Father of Love to us. The fruit of original sin causes us to identify more as a slave than as a child of God. We all have areas of our lives that have yet to experience full liberation. These sins, habits, and bondages are the devil's door to tempt us to think and act as though we were still slaves held in bondage.

Freedom is life in the Son of God. The Son has overcome every deception that we have believed about the Father who has always loved us, who has always been present, who has always blessed us.

Satan, seeking to rob, steal and destroy, poses as a counterfeit father. Jesus tells us, "He is the father of lies" (John 8:44). We know that God's word has power because it is the Word that comes from God. Deception has spiritual power as well because its source is a spiritual being, the devil who is a liar. Sin entered the world through one man and with sin came the great deception.

Deliverance is removing the power of the lies so that we can hear the voice of our Father that has always been speaking deep within. Knowing the Father through the Son is our place of deepest freedom; it is where broken humanity is healed.
