Catholic Teaching on Labor
As we celebrate Labor Day, can you tell me about Catholic teaching regarding labor?

One of the most important principles of Catholic social teaching is the dignity of work and the rights of workers. Four encyclicals address this foundational social teaching: Rerum Novarum (1891) by Leo XIII, Quadragesimo Anno (1931) by Pius XI, Laborem Exercens (1981), and Centesimus Annus (1991) by John Paul II. They address both the theology and dignity of work. In Genesis, God takes the initiative in creating the world, calling forth human beings to be faithful stewards of creation. We are thus formed to share in God’s continuing creative activity by partnering with God in finishing the world and helping bring it to completion and fulfillment. From this perspective, work can be spiritually understood in terms of sharing in God’s ongoing activity to build, create, and transform the world. Human beings are co-creators with God. This vocation demands self-discipline.

Besides an exercise in self-discipline, work is also the means by which we develop and fulfill ourselves. In work, we shape the world and our environment. Through work, we also shape ourselves. Pope John Paul II summarized this point in Laborem Exercens #6, “the value of work is not primarily the kind of work being done, but the fact that the one who is doing it is a person.”

Labor Day offers an excellent opportunity to reflect on how we view work in light of our Catholic social teaching.

Catholic Trivia Answer: Universal

Catholic Charities Partners with You to Provide Social Services

Catholic Charities Sunday is September 13, 2026. For over 90 years Catholic Charities of the Diocese of Stockton has provided vital social services to people of all ages, faiths, & ethnic groups across San Joaquin, Stanislaus, Calaveras, Tuolumne, Alpine, & Mono Counties.

With your generous support on Catholic Charities Sunday, they can continue to serve the poor and most vulnerable in our communities. Catholic Charities provides critical programs, including care for the frail elderly, access to health and mental health services, low-cost legal immigration services, youth mentoring, food assistance and nutrition education (Food Bank and CalFresh), veteran support services, assistance for homeless and at risk women, environmental justice advocacy, and transition care for patients returning home from the hospital.

100% of your contribution stays directly within our Diocesan community. Every year, Catholic Charities provides life giving support to over 77,000 people. The magnitude of need in our region can only be met with your partnership. Please consider a generous gift.

OCIA - Order of Christian Initiation for Adults

What is that? It is the path that non-Christians and baptized Christians of other faiths take to become Catholic. It is also the path that Catholics who did not receive the Sacraments of First Communion and/or Confirmation use to prepare for and receive those sacraments. It is the way that practicing Catholics can learn more about their faith and people who are just curious can find out what Catholics really believe. Come meet the OCIA team members and fellow seekers on Wednesday evenings at 6:00 pm in the All Saints Parish Hall. Please call Dan Garcia at 209-840-2644 for more information.
