From Military To Civilian – A Seamless Transition

When members of the Armed Forces of the United States finish at least one year of their tour of deployment they need to enroll in the Veterans Administration (VA) program to obtain any VA Health Benefits they may be entitled to receive. Enroll PROMPTLY by following these steps:

- Obtain a copy of your service medical records prior to discharge.
- A veteran has 2 years, after separation, to apply for service-related medical conditions. After two years the process becomes more difficult.
- If you require medical assistance from the VA after separation/discharge, bring with you a copy of your medical records, a copy of your DD-214, and two forms of picture identification.
- Any injury or illness incurred while serving on active duty as a regular, reservist, or Federalized member of the National Guard needs to be noted in your medical records.
- Enroll in the VA IMMEDIATELY. Do Not Procrastinate!!
- Join a veterans service organization - American Legion, VFW, DAV, AMVETS, Marine Corps League, Rolling Thunder®, etc

Hello AriZona Riders!

Veterans Day is right around the corner. However you plan to spend the day, please keep our Veterans and GIs in your thoughts & prayers.

As we have reached the Holiday Season, I hope you all had some fun Halloween festivities. With Thanksgiving almost upon us, it is a good time to reflect and remember what we are Thankful for in our lives. I wish you each a Joyful Thanksgiving.

Having family, friends, community, a safe & comfortable home, health and well-being, are among the Blessings I am Thankful for EVERY day Not just at this time of year. I am THANKFUL to be a part of the Brotherhood & Sisterhood that IS this motorcycling community.

As I prepare this edition, I can also say that I am Thankful for having been a part of the biker publishing industry for as many years as I have. It has been an AMAZING ride! It's given me and Bruce so many opportunities to meet & spend time with some phenomenal scooter folk. I wouldn't have missed any bit of it. That being said... I have an announcement to make.

In speaking with compatriots in the publishing industry, I've come to realize that I am a dinosaur ~ lol. If not the last of my kind, one of very few left. Bruce & I were among the first to publish an independent local biker rag in its entirety on the web. Now it appears that AZ Rider will be among the last to leave the party.

The nature of marketing being what it has become, businesses have less and less need to pay for advertising when they can market their goods and services for free via social media. And being the frugal individual that I am... I can't blame them one bit! ☺

Due to that understanding, I am all the more thankful for and appreciative of my Advertisers who have continued their support over time.

Furthermore, nobody needs to wait for a monthly publication to share or read a story. There are means to be following or reporting on an event as it is happening ... via cell phone, youtube, social media, etc.

And so it is that I've decided that it is time for me to fold my tent and move along. 2024 feels like a very 'tidy' time for doing so. This past September's Anniversary edition marked 25 years and the final issue in December will be the 300th edition of AZ Rider Motorcycle News.

I love being a part of this community and will still be out & about ☺. As a proud ABATE-AZ member, I will take notebook in hand from time to time to share stories in the Master-Link.

To those of you who have shown love and support and encouragement and appreciation to me, to Bruce, and to AZ Rider over the years, I thank you so very much !

Ride safely, choose wisely, &

Keep Your Butts On Your Putts!

PS: Friends I have shared this news with have suggested that there should be a 'retirement' party of sorts for AZ Rider. I hadn't thought of it. Perhaps being too close to the situation... Forest & Trees, as they say. If a gathering comes together, I will post it to facebook & other social media, thru the newsletter, etc.

'bye for now ☺

Betsy

There was a fundraiser for BACA ~ Bikers Against Child Abuse taking place as well. Part of the BACA Mission Statement explains, "We exist as a body of Bikers to empower children to not feel afraid of the world in which they live." Visit <https://bacaworld.org/> to learn more. There was a very positive response at OTG to their message. The fundraiser collected about $3000 to help them in their work.

AMA Hall of Fame Inductee: Erwin 'Cannonball' Baker

AMA Hall of Famer
Pioneering racer;
Cross-country record holder;
Inducted into the Hall of Fame 1998

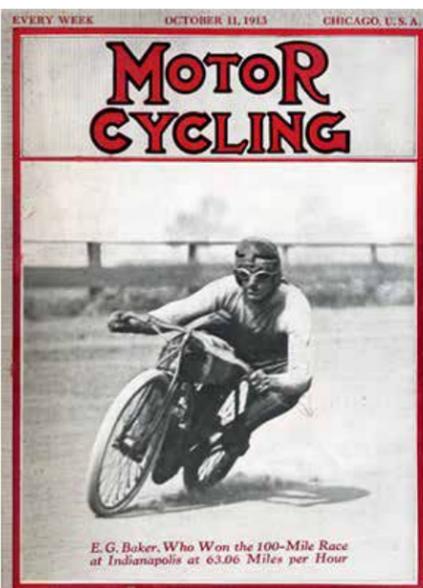

E.G. Baker was an early motorcycling pioneer who set dozens of cross-country records riding a variety of motorcycles and sidecars. He also was known for record-setting runs in automobiles. By the time he retired from his pursuit of records, it was estimated that Baker had ridden or driven more than five million miles. During his exhausting career, Baker made more than 143 attempts at a variety of timed, long-distance records, including his most famous transcontinental and three flags (Canada to Mexico) attempts.

Born Erwin George Baker in 1882 in a four-room log house in Dearborn County, Indiana, Baker moved to Indianapolis when he was 12 years old. Baker learned the machinist trade and worked in a foundry. A tall and lanky youngster, Baker became interested in athletics and participated in boxing, wrestling and tumbling. He worked out in a gymnasium faithfully and gained a reputation as quite an athlete. His athleticism earned him a job with a acrobatic drill team that traveled the vaudeville circuit at the turn of the century. Erwin was also part of the popular bicycle racing craze at the time, which led to him riding some of the first motorized bicycles.

In 1908, Baker purchased an Indian motorcycle and began entering and winning local races. His most famous victory came in 1909 at the first race ever held at the newly built Indianapolis Motor Speedway. It was during this time that Baker began his endurance runs. Most of his early records were city-to-city runs.

One of Baker's well-publicized stunts was racing passenger trains from town to town. These were in the days before well-maintained roads. Baker often encountered deep mud, sand washes, flooded river crossings and snowed-in mountain passes during his long-distance attempts.

rides for other motorcycle makers. In 1913, Baker rode an Indian on a record transcontinental run which ended in Savannah, Georgia. Once there, he entered the 300-mile national championship on the same machine he had just ridden across the country.

After a record-setting transcontinental run in by Baker in 1914, a New York newspaper writer compared him to the Cannonball Express train and he picked up the famous moniker that would stick with him the rest of his life.

Baker accumulated his share of scars as well as trophies during his years of setting records. He also had a slew of interesting stories of things that happened to him during his record runs. In one three-flags record attempt in 1916, Baker had to change routes several times to avoid vast forest fires. In another run he came around a curve at a high rate of speed and came upon a herd of cattle in the road. In trying to miss the herd, Baker turned sharply, hit a hole in the road and was thrown off his motorcycle into a fence which in turn bounced him right onto the back of one of the cows. The surprised cow bucked him off and he ultimately landed in a ditch off the side of the road.

Baker took his skills overseas and set numerous records in foreign countries, most notably Australia and New Zealand.

By the 1930s, Baker began shifting his focus and most of his record attempts were in automobiles. In 1922, he ran in the Indianapolis 500 and finished 11th, though well back of the leaders. He also became a test driver for automobile companies. He worked for Rickenbacker Automobiles, which was owned by the famous World War I flying ace Eddie Rickenbacker. On motorcycles, Baker began increasingly to participate in economy runs. In one such run, his Neracar motorcycle went 3,364 miles on 45 gallons of gas. He became an AMA race official and later was named national commissioner for NASCAR. After his record-setting days Baker also took up building miniature racing cars.

Baker died in Indianapolis on May 10, 1960, survived by his wife Emma. Baker goes down in history as one of the most famous motorcyclists of the early 20th century. His name was perhaps the most recognized of any motorcycle racer through the 1930s.

The AMA Motorcycle Hall of Fame Museum is located at 13515 Yarmouth Drive in Pickerington, Ohio 43147. You can also learn about more of the AMA's Motorcycle Hall of Fame Inductees by clicking here.

Witches Ride 2024

This Ladies-Only Ride is hosted by Motorcycle Princess Jennifer Sievers. The event first took place in 2018 and has been a popular & fun annual ride ever since.

In addition to some pretty amazing costumes, some of the ladies decorate their bikes as well. It makes for quite a sight for other motorists as the pack of witches makes their way down the road.

This year, the riders met up at J&P Cycles in Scottsdale on Sunday October 20. Kickstands up at 10am and they were headed on a route through Fountain Hills & Rio Verde before landing at the Mountain View Pub in Cave Creek for lunch.

Motorcycle Riders Foundation Friday From DC: It's Not Just Bikers

October 25, 2024 ...

Two recent news stories demonstrate that the issues motorcyclists care about also impact all Americans. Concerns about a pair of items, both parts of the Motorcycle Riders Foundation (MRF) legislative agenda, are making news... and not in a good way.

First, fears are increasing that guardrails and other safety features will not be able to withstand the increased weight of electric vehicles. Roadways have been designed to account for vehicles weighing 5,000 lbs. However, new electric vehicles can far exceed that weight.

Cody Stolle, a University of Nebraska associate professor studying guardrail performance, said, "Unfortunately, these guardrail systems, which have performed very well with gasoline vehicles historically, do not appear to be containing electric vehicles when impacting [in] similar types of conditions."

Secondly, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration (NHTSA) announced it would investigate Tesla's Autopilot system. The research will examine whether the technology can detect and respond effectively to reduced visibility on roadways. NHTSA is concerned the technology is hampered by sun glare, fog and airborne dust. Four recent crashes have shined a light on this problem.

These topics are nothing new to bikers. For the better part of a decade the MRF, along with our partners and champions, have tried to sound the alarm on these issues to government officials. While the mainstream media and the average American might be just waking up to the downside of electric vehicles or self-driving cars, the MRF is not new to the game. We have been and will remain engaged. We are and continue to be the voice of the street rider in Washington, D.C.

Motorcycle Riders Foundation Awareness & Education (MRFA&E) was established to promote motorcycle awareness and education due to an ever-increasing rider population. Motorcycle riders and activists have long recognized that motorcycle rider education and awareness are crucial in enhancing rider safety. No one is more concerned with rider safety than riders themselves, and obviously those best suited to educate newer riders are veteran riders.
