The Lost Negatives of Rock & Roll Legends Coming to Phoenix

The Men's Arts Council of the Phoenix Art Museum presents The Lost Negatives of Rock & Roll Legends, a curated exhibition of rare photos of iconic artists from the 1960s, including Janis Joplin, Rolling Stones, The Band, Kris Kristofferson, James Cotton, Butterfield Blues Band, Todd Rundgren and more.

©2017 Michael Friedman
 Todd Rundgren Runt Session

During the 1960s and 70s, business manager and music producer Michael Friedman formed close personal relationships while working and traveling with the artists. Living in New York and Woodstock, he was also an avid photographer and his favorite subjects were his artist friends and their performances.

Friedman shot more than 2,000 photographs before misplacing the negatives nearly 50 years ago. Considered lost and nearly forgotten, his wife Donna Vita discovered them in a box of old music business papers in their attic. Together they've restored the negatives. In addition to the upcoming fundraiser, the two are collaborating on a soon-to-be-published book.

"It's remarkable that Michael Friedman documented this important flash point in music history and captured its energy and personality," said President and CEO of The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame Greg Harris.

Following a successful year-long exhibit at The Rock and Roll Hall of Fame, a newly curated and expanded collection of 80 restored images, many new and never seen before, will be on display, free to the public and available for purchase to benefit the Phoenix Art Museum.

"I'm really excited about this exhibit and the opportunity to share the photos and the stories behind them in Phoenix," said Friedman. "My music business journey actually began in Arizona, so it's a bit like coming home. Plus, I'm thrilled to be able to make a contribution that will benefit the Phoenix Art Museum."

The photos have been described as a 1960's Rock and Roll time capsule. Friedman's photos offer a fresh new look, on stage and behind the scenes, of some of the most important artists of the time.

"Seeing these blasts from the past, in person, is truly jaw-dropping, extremely rare and very special," said Men's Arts Council Event Chairman Steven Stralser. "We're so grateful to Mr. Friedman for collaborating with us to share these one-of-a-kind images with the Phoenix community."

The Exhibition and Sale will take place at the FOUND:RE Hotel, 1100 N. Central Avenue, Phoenix, AZ 85004, starting Friday, November 19th at 6:00 p.m. with a preview ticketed reception ($125 per person), artist's gallery talk and conversation; thereafter it will be free and open to the public on Saturday, November 20th from 10:00 a.m. to 8:00 p.m. and Sunday, November 21st from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Follow Lost Negatives of Rock & Roll on Facebook and Instagram. From the Publisher...

Finally the cooler weather is here! Time to get out and enjoy this awesome weather and maybe a football game or two. The Cardinals are looking pretty good this year with Kyler Murray leading them to their latest victory; I may have to catch a game or two at the State Farm Stadium. Can't make it to a game in person? Head on over to Keegan's on Camelback and catch the action every Monday, Thursday, or Sunday for their awesome Sunday morning breakfast.

It is also time for the Bentley Scottsdale Polo Championships. This year marks the 10th Anniversary of the Scottsdale Polo Party presented by Talking Stick Resort. There are several new events to look forward to this year for the Polo Party that you won't want to miss. Nic Roldan will be returning representing the former champion, Aspen Valley Polo Club. Roldan's team will go head-to-head with La Mariposa Argentina Polo Club. Besides the polo action, fans can also enjoy The Polo Party's signature events within the event like the Canine Couture Dog Fashion Show, the World's Longest Catwalk Fashion Show, a half-time rugby match between top collegiate teams, a preview of Barrett-Jackson's 2022 Scottsdale Auction and halftime performances by the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show. See the feature on page eight for information.

Until next month, Susan

Pomchies in Paradise Valley Ranks in Annual List of America's Fastest-Growing Private Companies—the Inc. 5000

Inc. magazine recently revealed that Pomchies is No. 221 on its annual Inc. 5000 list, the most prestigious ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies. The list represents a unique look at the most successful companies within the American economy's most dynamic segment—its independent small businesses. Intuit, Zappos, Under Armour, Microsoft, Patagonia, and many other well-known names gained their first national exposure as honorees on the Inc. 5000.

"It is an honor to be recognized by Inc. magazine and listed among these renowned and reputable companies," says Heather Logan Clark, Co-Founder and Owner of Pomchies. "We look forward to continuing our efforts to be the company that America turns to for fun and fashionable accessories."

Not only have the companies on the 2021 Inc. 5000 been very competitive within their markets, but the list as a whole shows staggering growth compared with prior lists as well. The 2021 Inc. 5000 achieved an incredible three-year average growth of over 500 percent, and a median rate of 165 percent. The Inc. 5000's aggregate revenue was $209 billion in 2019, accounting for over 1 million jobs over the past three years.

Complete results of the Inc. 5000, including company profiles and an interactive database that can be sorted by industry, region and other criteria, can be found at www.inc.com/inc5000.

"The companies on this year's Inc. 5000 come from nearly every realm of business," says Inc. Editor-in-Chief Scott Omelianuk. "From health and software to media and hospitality, the 2021 list proves that no matter the sector, incredible growth is based on the foundations of tenacity and opportunism."

The annual Inc. 5000 event honoring the companies on the list will be held virtually from October 23rd to the 27th, 2021. As always, speakers will include some of the greatest innovators and business leaders of our generation.

In 2002 Heather Logan Clark created Pomchies out of a desire to utilize the excess unused swimsuit material from her previous swimwear company. Today, Pomchies creates a wide range of fun and fashionable accessories including facial masks, which the company began manufacturing out of comfortable, machine washable and breathable swimwear fabric in 2020. Since then, Pomchies has sold more than four million masks. All of the company's products are produced from the highest quality swimwear fabric that is durable, waterproof, washable, reasonably priced and also eco-friendly. Clark is proud to be a certified woman-owned company that has offered products currently available locations throughout the United States, as well as globally in Australia, Japan, Singapore, Thailand and the UK. Kevin Costner & Modern West Tales from Yellowstone 2021 Tour Coming to Schnepf Farms

R Entertainment and Schnepf Farms proudly present Kevin Costner & Modern West, Tales from Yellowstone 2021 Tour, coming to the Valley on Sunday, November 7th.

Superstar Costner, a two-time Academy Award winning actor and later musician takes his band on the road, arriving at Schnepf Farms the same day his mega-popular hit television series, Yellowstone, debuts season 4. Yellowstone features the Dutton family with Costner in the starring role as the tough, enduring patriarch, John Dutton, who owns the largest contiguous ranch in the USA.

Kevin Costner & Modern West hit the road on this tour to perform songs written by Costner and co-writers, with special performances from the latest album, Tales from Yellowstone. The band has played together since 2007 and this playlist, inspired by the character Costner plays on the show, was originally released in 2020. They're finally touring with this latest album and Queen Creek, Arizona is on the tour.

Costner has said some of the album's songs were inspired by his own life experiences, and others are specifically inspired by Dutton, the TV character. In a recent story posted on WideOpenCountry.com, Costner shares that the album's song "Won't Stop Loving You" is about Dutton losing his wife.

Costner is quoted as he explains the song: "It begins to sum up how he [John Dutton] feels. This man is about the land. And when you share the land with your partner, every place you ever go, you see her on it. He's a man going forward, but you never forget the moment; it's immovable. I didn't have to look any further than my own life to find what was the strength of it for me."

Several ticket options are available, ranging from $50 for General Admission to $300 for VIP (includes a poster and a beverage), with a variety of options in between.

Official Ticket & Travel Packages are available in an exclusive pre-sale sign-up for Kevin Costner & Modern West on November 7th, at R-Entertainment.com. Each package includes a 2-night hotel stay with shuttle service to concert, VIP or Reserved ticket, expedited entry and exclusive open bar event add on. Package pricing starts from $749 per person. Packages are limited and will move fast, so early registration is suggested.

Guests will have access to an afternoon of food, wine, beer and bourbon tasting, full bars and a boutique marketplace.

North America's First Landscape Hotel 40 Luxe Atriums Rise from the Rugged Sedona Landscape

As one of the most anticipated hotel openings of the year, Ambiente, A Landscape Hotel in Sedona is set to welcome its first guests this December and local family developer Two Sister Bosses is offering a first glance into the highly unique, ultra-luxury accommodations as the first Atrium is now completed.

Set on three rugged acres in Red Rock Country overlooking the city's most iconic monoliths, diligent and intentional work is quickly progressing as Ambiente takes shape with all 40 of its cubed-shaped, glass-encased Atriums fully constructed and undergoing interior and rooftop finishing touches.

Work is also underway on the hotel's primary buildings including the poolside lounge, two-story lobby building and valet-only parking area. Ambiente's landscape architects, Simon and Chris Bosman of Green Magic Landscaping, are also currently reactivating the land's ancient waterway system, which is more than 50 percent completed, to bring permanent flowing water to the property and create an eco-balanced natural habitat using aquatic plants, fish and the water's movement to achieve a biological balance without the use of chemicals.

While all of Ambiente's Atriums offer the same 576-square foot, King accommodations, the dramatic 360-degree panoramic views vary drastically as each Atrium has been expertly placed to maximize view corridors, whether that is north to the surrounding Coconino National Forest or east and south to the Steamboat, Chimney, Coffee Pot and Snoopy red rock formations. Elevated above the ground by steel piers and constructed using floor-to-ceiling, bronze-tinted glass and matte-charcoal and rusted metal, Ambiente's Atriums are uniquely designed to blend in with the surrounding geography. With a focus on sustainable methods and organic, modern architecture that complements the neighboring topography and minimizes the impact on land, the Atriums' sleek design embodies elegant minimalism, while contemporary, elemental interiors afford the utmost in luxurious, intimate accommodations.

Each Atrium will embody a lavish hideaway with a petite kitchen refreshed daily offering complimentary refreshments and on-demand wine dispensers where guests can self-serve from a selection of Northern Arizona wines. Atriums' various elevations feature fabrics, furnishings and patterns that evoke a tranquil yet chic atmosphere and reflect the rich elements of the captivating natural landscape that surrounds them.

Nearly all Atriums also have access to their own private rooftop decks with a secure staircase for the ultimate sunbathing and stargazing experience. Lounge seating, a roaring firepit and a day-bed comfortable enough for sleeping alfresco will serve as a remote locale perched between the rugged terrain below and bright, beaming stars clearly visible above thanks to the city of Sedona's Dark Sky Association.

When the hotel opens later this year, guests can expect complimentary programming including sunrise and sunset yoga, guided stargazing sessions from expert local astronomers and poolside films projected on a custom theater wall visible day and night. Exclusive to guests will be the hotel's signature restaurant, Alchemy, that finds its home within a custom Airstream, which has been transformed and reimagined into a culinary destination situated poolside serving breakfast, lunch and dinner daily.

At multiple intervals throughout the day, guests can also expect an outfitted beverage and snack ETrikeCo electric vehicle to make its way through the property offering a range of goodies such as coffee, pastries, gourmet snacks, pressed juices, craft cocktails and more to nibble and sip on between meals. A small fleet of ETrikes, which are street-safe, will also be available on a first-come, first-serve basis for guests to tool around town for the day.

Ambiente is an adults-only hotel welcoming guests 18 years and older. For information and to register to be among the first to learn when reservations open, visit AmbienteSedona.com. ❖

The Bentley Scottsdale Polo Championships Returns Everything That's New for the 10th Anniversary of the Scottsdale Polo Party

The Bentley Scottsdale Polo Championships presented by Talking Stick Resort, is once again making history not just for bringing exciting polo to the desert, but also for bringing unusual elements among and in between the matches. It contributes to making Scottsdale the most attended polo event in the country.

The event which celebrates its 10th anniversary in 2021 will kick-off festivities at an invite-only Sanderson Lincoln Preview Party on Thursday, October 7th at the new Sanderson Lincoln showroom at Scottsdale Quarter located at 15059 N. Scottsdale Road in Scottsdale.

Then on Saturday October 23rd, start the day with a brand-new field-side Scottsdale Morning Beer Festival, starting at 10:00 a.m. until noon. The festival will feature numerous beers that may taste better in the morning.

Brand new for 2021, The Polo Party will also debut Arizona's first DJ with Down Syndrome. DJ MPower will be spinning his electric house music sets in various tents, alongside several of the Valley's top other DJ's. The 22-year old inspiration with down syndrome has overcome challenges of a learning disability to DJ on a professional level. Also entertaining on-site is Jazz Musician Doc Jones and acoustic guitarists.

As always – fans can expect to see four thrilling and action-packed polo matches. Since its inception, the event has traditionally brought in many of the world's most talented and notable polo stars. It is only fitting for 2021 that polo fans will see the return of GQ model and undoubtedly one of America's best players, Nic Roldan, who returns representing the former champion Aspen Valley Polo Club, owned by Marc and Melissa Ganzi. Roldan's team will go head-to-head with La Mariposa Argentina Polo Club on Saturday, October 23rd. La Mariposa is making its first appearance in the event.

Among the other new teams scheduled to play in 2021 is the Grand Champions Polo Club and the Jet Set Woman's All-Stars who will take center stage in a match-up.

And because it's not just polo on Saturday, October 23rd sports fans can enjoy other exciting sports matchups for 2021 including ASU Rugby vs. Prescott Black Sheep Rugby and Brophy College Prep vs Anthem Boulder Creek High School Lacrosse.

Need some football? Also newly expanded for 2021, retired NFL Star AC Caswell will once again bring his Million Dollar Mingle charity experience to the event with an even larger VIP presence on site.

When it comes to new horsepower for 2021 Polestar, the luxurious all electric performance car brand unlike any other car today will have a showstopping display. New to Arizona, Polestar will open its first showroom in November 2021 in conjunction with Courtesy Volvo.

For the first time guests will also have the option of purchasing four seat tables as well as the standard eight-top versions.

Raise your glass to additional alcohol offerings for 2021, including onsite activations and tastings for Whispering Angel, a Rose' brand, Bud Light Seltzers, Skyside and the Chandon Garden Spritz. The new sparkling wine served over ice blends a unique bitters recipe crafted with locally sourced fresh oranges macerated with dry orange peels, herbs and spices.

As always, guests seeking the ultimate VIP experience can get reserved seating and tables in The Molina Fine Jewelers Drivers and Players VIP Lounge, the Barrett-Jackson Champagne and Jazz Lounge, and Prime: A Luxury Tent Experience by Steak 44, Neiman Marcus, Barrett-Jackson, and Bentley Scottsdale.

Besides the polo action, fans can also enjoy The Polo Party's signature events within the event like the Canine Couture Dog Fashion Show presented by Lugari Pet Salon, the World's Longest Catwalk Fashion Show produced by Phoenix Fashion Week, a half-time rugby match between top collegiate teams, a preview of Barrett-Jackson's 2022 Scottsdale Auction and halftime performances by the Scottsdale Arabian Horse Show, plus much more!

Gates will open at 10:00 a.m. on October 23rd. General Admission tickets start at $35 and include field-side experiences like the Sanderson Lincoln Black Label Lounge and several other DJ-infused party tents including the Talking Stick Resort Polo DayClub Lounge with tables and bottle service courtesy of Scottsdale's most recognizable hotspots.

Among the new sponsors for 2021 is The Cayman Islands Department of Tourism, who will bring a fun festive activation to the polo event.

Tickets and tables are now on sale. For tickets, tables and sponsorships visit ThePoloParty.com. Corporate Sky Box sponsorship opportunities and private polo tents are currently also available. There are also spectacular vendor opportunities to be showcased on Vendor Row alongside dozens of vendors. Those seeking sponsorship for 2021 should also contact info@ThePoloParty.com or call (480) 423-1414. ❖

Shea Homes® Good Life Festival™

Celebrating Rock Icons America on its 50th Anniversary Tour

Shea Homes® Good Life Festival returns for a 10th year, Saturday, November 6th, and proudly welcomes presenting sponsor, Subaru, with the exciting addition of the Subaru Forester Glamping and RV Camping available at this year's destination event at Schnepf Farms.

Shea Homes® Good Life Festival presented by Subaru celebrates an iconic rock 'n roll line-up of America on its 50th Anniversary Tour; Don Felder formerly of The Eagles; The Guess Who; and Nate Nathan and The Mac Daddy-O's.

This is the first year that this epic rock concert event occurs at Schnepf Farms. Good Life Festival first made its mark at Encanterra, a scenic Trilogy® Resort Community in Queen Creek. The event became so successful that it outgrew its original home and was moved, literally, down the street to Schnepf Farms, 246120 E. Rittenhouse Rd. in Queen Creek, Arizona.

Eric Park, LA Zone Marketing Manager, Subaru of America, said, "We are delighted to be part of this amazing lifestyle event where it seems 'the good life' is actually happening every year for so many to enjoy. Spending an afternoon in the countryside, with food and beverage sampling, capped off with a fabulous concert, and now camping available, it all speaks to our brand. Subaru is all about being a part of enjoying life's moments."

CHARITY BENEFICIARIES. A portion of event proceeds will benefit the Oliver Patch Project, with Subaru and Shea Homes matching funds. In addition, Phoenix Theatre will continue its longstanding charity relationship with the event as well.

CONCERT LINEUP & SCHEDULE.

Gates open at 2:00 p.m. with food, beverages and a boutique marketplace to enjoy. Concert lineup and schedule includes:

- 2:00 p.m. - Gates open

- 4:00 p.m. - The Guess Who
- 5:30 p.m. - Don Felder
- 7:15 p.m. - America

Tickets are available at <https://www.thegoodlifefest.com>. Ticket options include (excluding taxes & fees):

- Reserved Seating. $75 to $95
- General Admission. $50

VIP. $35 upgrade add-on; featuring access to separate bar and upgraded restroom facilities. Purchase of Reserved Seating or GA ticket required. Tickets limited.

Subaru Forester Glamping & RV Campsites at Schnepf Farms is $150-$300 and spaces are limited. For details and reservations, visit <https://www.thegoodlifefest.com/> or www.r-entertainment.com.

BEVERAGE TASTING PASSPORTS. $25 Beverage Tasting Passports will be available onsite. Passports provide 10 samples of wine, craft beer, and/or Bourbon & Bones bourbon tastings. NOTE: regular bars will be available for full drink purchases as well. Must be age 21 or older. Please drink responsibly.

PARKING. General parking is $10, premium parking is $40. Handicap parking is available with a valid handicap or license plate. Walking distance from lots to event site can range from 100 yards to 250 yards, depending on arrival time and resulting parking location.

CLEANLINESS & SAFETY PROTOCOLS. Shea Homes Good Life Festival presented by Subaru is produced by R Entertainment. This is an outdoor destination event that adheres to safety protocols standardized and implemented throughout 2020 and 2021, at events ranging from drive-in movies to the indoor Subaru Presents Scottsdale 4th of July at WestWorld to Holiday Lights at Salt River Fields, and others. Staff is trained and briefed; physical distancing measures in food and drink hospitality areas are observed. Contactless payment systems, clearly marked entry spacing, frequent handwashing and sanitation of public facilities are standard protocols.

DETAILS & THE LATEST. For the latest details, visit www.TheGoodLifeFest.com. ❖

Cobre Kitchen + Cocktails at Canopy Scottsdale Reopens for Dinner The American Brasserie Reopens with a Brand-New Menu

Cobre Kitchen + Cocktails, the signature restaurant at Old Town Scottsdale's first new hotel in over a decade Canopy Scottsdale, is open for dinner with a brand-new menu.

The American brasserie, inspired by the Southwest, is located on the hotel's ground floor and features thoughtfully curated dishes highlighting local flavors set in a warm and welcoming atmosphere with floor-to-ceiling windows, dramatic arched wood ceilings, contemporary furnishings and sleek marble countertops.

The new menu by Executive Chef Patrick Gaudet features flavorful fare such as Citrus Brined Porkchop ($28) with sweet corn polenta, jalapeño jam and chicharonne; Striped Seabass ($34) with garden field greens, grilled radicchio, avocado puree and balsamic pickled onion; Grilled N.Y. Strip Steak ($36) with New Mexico chili butter, charred Brussels sprouts and Bravas potatoes; and Slow Cooked Smoked Short Rib ($32) with pickled apple, chayote risotto, shishito peppers and Tucson Del Bac Bourbon demi.

Starters include Fried Calamari ($12) with baby arugula, pickled Fresno and romesco dipping sauce and Mexican Chilled Shrimp ($15) with tomato lime marinated shrimp, Aleppo chilies, house made guacamole and crispy tortillas chips. Sandwiches include the Cobre Burger ($15) with angus beef patty, pepper jack and cheddar cheese and remoulade; Crispy Chili Chicken Torta ($14) with house spiced pickles, bibb lettuce, cilantro-lime aioli and telera roll; and Gourmet Grilled Cheese ($15) with smoked gouda, Swiss, Monterey Jack and crispy pork belly.

"Chef Patrick has been perfecting our dinner menu to make Cobre's comeback as delectable as possible," said Devin Mahoney, General Manager and chief enthusiast of Canopy Scottsdale. "We also participated in Arizona Restaurant Week for the first time to allow all Arizonans to savor the new menu lineup."

Cobre is located at 7142 E. 1st Street in Scottsdale and is open daily for dinner from 4:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. and for breakfast from 6:30 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. on weekdays and 6:30 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. on weekends. Reservations are available through OpenTable. For more information, please visit cobrekitchen.com. ❖

Hair Today Gone Tomorrow!

We adore our fur babies. But when battling their fur becomes a daily annoyance covering our clothes and furniture, not so much. Before pets were always with their humans in climate-controlled environments, they typically 'blew-out' their coats losing a lot of hair quickly, twice a year and in a short amount of time. Today, it is more the norm for pets to shed a little bit all of the time.

Vacuuming, dusting, swiftering, no matter how gallant the effort, sometimes it's just a losing battle. Here are a few tried and true tips to help fight and win your battle against fur!

Tip #1. Regular grooming will go a long way! Professional or at home bathing will help with getting rid of dander and excess hair. Don't be afraid to introduce your cat to grooming as well. Cats tend to be sensitive to grooming, so brushing them should begin with short intervals, with and in a different part of their body each day. Incorporate treats to give your feline a tasty reason to tolerate brushing.

Tip #2. Freedom from Fuzz: If accumulated fur is on your furnishing or bedding it's best to keep those surfaces regularly vacuumed, roller-erased and washed. This includes pet bedding, towels or blankets that cover furniture or favorite pet-places they lounge about.

Tip #3. Say, ahhh to doggy spaaaa: Using the correct pet grooming products are key to loosening and removing fur. Doggy shampoo should be followed with a compatible dog conditioner. The best way to deal with shedding is to use a high-velocity blow-dryer. It removes loose fur straight from the skin. In addition, regular brushing will benefit all breeds.

THE HERMOSA INN MAKES 'TOP 5 RESORTS IN ARIZONA' LIST FOR TRAVEL + LEISURE'S WORLD'S BEST AWARDS 2021

Travel + Leisure recently announced the winners of its World's Best Awards 2021, with the Hermosa Inn earning the #4 slot for the Top Five Resorts in Arizona. The World's Best Awards survey encourages readers to reflect on their travel experiences over a three year period. The rankings include the World's Best hotels, islands, tour operators, airlines and more, and to better represent the focus on traveling closer to home since the pandemic, several new domestic resort lists have been added.

"We are honored to be recognized by Travel + Leisure as one of the top five resorts in Arizona in the World's Best Awards 2021," said

Managing Director Stephen Ast. "We are tremendously grateful to our cherished guests, whose passion and loyalty propelled us to the top of the rankings. And once again, this award exemplifies the outstanding hospitality and service provided by our remarkable team while creating authentic and memorable guest experiences that are unmistakably Arizona."

Handcrafted in the 1930's by cowboy artist Lon Megargee as his residence and art studio, the AAA Four Diamond Hermosa Inn is a jewel of a hideaway surrounded by an exclusive neighborhood in Paradise Valley. The Inn's adobe architecture has maintained its 'authentic Arizona' charm, with 43 luxury guest casitas nestled in a garden setting with breathtaking vistas of the lush desert and Camelback Mountain. Accommodations reflect the southwestern design of the original Casa Hermosa (beautiful house) and most include deep soaking tubs, beehive fireplaces and private patios.

The culinary centerpiece is LON's at the Hermosa, a AAA Four Diamond restaurant honored by Food & Wine magazine as Arizona's Most Romantic Restaurant, serving globally inspired Arizona fare. A recipient of Wine Spectator's 'Best of Award of Excellence' since 2015, the restaurant is complemented by a subterranean wine cellar, a celebrated outdoor dining patio, and its bar and casual dining counterpart, LON's Last Drop, named after one of Megargee's iconic paintings, many of which are displayed throughout the resort.

For more information, visit HermosaInn.com or call (602) 955-8614. The Hermosa Inn is located at 5532 N Palo Cristi Road in Paradise Valley, Arizona. ❖

Holiday Gift Guide: Frank Lloyd Wright Inspired Gifts For the Design-Savvy Loved Ones on Your List

This holiday season, treat the design-obsessed and architecture fanatic loved ones on your list with a gift inspired by one of America's most celebrated architects, Frank Lloyd Wright.

The Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation is now debuting its 2021 holiday collection of timeless, artisan home and lifestyle products that evoke Wright's spirit and honor his vision of inspiring society to discover and embrace architecture for better living through meaningful connections to nature, the arts and each other.

From high-quality home décor to luxurious, fashionable textiles and kid-friendly puzzles and building blocks, the collection offers a stylish gift at every price point perfect for your family and friends with a keen eye for design. All products are available at the store's flagship location as well as at FrankLloydWrightStore.com.

Even better, know you're shopping for a good cause. Each purchase supports the Frank Lloyd Wright Foundation's mission to preserve Taliesin and Taliesin West for future generations, and inspire society through an understanding and experience of Frank Lloyd Wright's ideas, architecture and design. With annual memberships starting as low as $90, Foundation members get an additional 10% off their entire purchase. A few notable favorites from this season's guide include:

Large Hollyhock Lightbox ($293)

Built in the early 1900s for oil heiress Aline Barnsdall, The Hollyhock House was Frank Lloyd Wright's first Los Angeles project, and represented his earliest efforts to develop a regionally appropriate style of architecture for Southern California. The Hollyhock Lightbox features the same stylized representation of the hollyhock flower incorporated throughout the decorative program of the iconic house, encased in cherry veneered MDF wood and heat-resistant shoji paper that when lit reflects the ethereal floral motif in every direction. Each lightbox is made in the U.S. and includes an inline dimmer switch and a LED tubular bulb.

Taliesin West Apprentice Wax Canvas Apron ($145.95)

Working in the desert with masonry and wood can be demanding on your workwear. Enter the Apprentice's Waxed Canvas Apron, made from high-quality, Cherokee Red-waxed canvas and top-grain cowhide that will hold strong from the woodshop to the grill. Embossed on the front leather pocket is the ancient Hohokam whirling arrow petroglyph, a significant motif that reminded Wright of two hands clasping in a gesture of friendship that was later used as a symbol of the Taliesin Fellowship.

Organic Commandment Art Glass ($84.95)

Wright's Organic Commandment is simple, yet graphically powerful and profound. First issued as a limited print run by Wright's Taliesin Press in 1934, the principles expressed assumed a broader application as a life philosophy and continue to have a significant impact on the fields of architecture and design. The source of the artwork, a Christmas card designed by Wright in 1948 for the Taliesin Fellowship and their friends, was adapted into an art glass panel that summarizes his inspirational ideology with the words "Love is the virtue of the Heart; Sincerity the virtue of the Mind; Decision the virtue of the Will; Courage the virtue of the Spirit."

Hardcore Quote Hammer ($99)

Not just a pretty hammer, this is one of the most versatile, well-balanced, and user-friendly hammers on the market, and one to be passed down for generations. Carefully etched in the wood handle reads one of Wright's famous quotes, "We create our buildings and then they create us." The claw is designed to fit a wide variety of nails and the magnet placement allows grip of nails for one-handed nail starting, as well as to allow the bottom magnet to accept duplex nails used in concrete formwork. The 21-ounce head allows for great striking force while maintaining excellent balance and feel during use.

"Taliesin West Stairs" Scarf ($65)

Designer Blaise Danio, founder of Buhlaxie, creates delicate scarves inspired by the intersection between classic architectural forms and the ethereal desert. For this piece, Buhlaxie was inspired by the stairs of the central building on the Taliesin West site in Scottsdale. The stairs reach toward the sky, directing attention to the mountains above. Each scarf has been illustrated, digitally printed and hemmed locally in Phoenix, while maintaining a sustainable and responsible manufacturing process.

City by the Sea Puzzle ($19.99)

The Frank Lloyd Wright City by the Sea 1,000 Piece Foil Puzzle introduces a new flavor to an iconic series of art. The foil combined with Wright's striking image and sturdy pieces will bring joy and relaxation to amateur and pro puzzlers alike.

Ennis Block Trivet ($26)

In the early 1920s, Wright gave new life to concrete blocks with a new building system he called "textile block construction," a reference to his idea of weaving concrete blocks on the warp and weft of reinforced steel, forming an interlocking system for the "fabric" of the house. Crowning a ridge at the base of the Santa Monica Mountains, the Ennis House is the most monumental and complex of the four textile block homes Wright designed. The house includes 24 different block forms, murals and art glass windows representing abstractions of wisteria. The blocks were cast with decomposed granite straight from the site, giving the house the appearance of a series of carved granite cliffs. The trivets are made from half inch thick cherry veneered MDF with rubber feet on the bottom and can withstand heat up to 400 degrees, make it a wonderful addition to any home.

6x8 Rainbow Saguaro Forms Tile ($142)

In 1927, Wright submitted a series of cover designs to Liberty magazine. All were rejected by the editors as too "radical" and were never published. One of these designs was "Saguaro Forms and Cactus Flowers," Wright's interpretation of a desert landscape. Although initially disregarded, the image became one of Wright's most popular and was later transformed into a stained-glass feature for the lobby of the renowned Arizona Biltmore hotel. Produced by Motawi Tileworks, each 6x8 ceramic art tile is crafted by hand and reimagines the work while reflecting Wright's stylized vision.

December Gifts Round Cufflinks ($53)

The "Round Gifts" Cufflinks, a design inspired by Wright, comes from ACME Studio's line of designer cufflinks. The design is made of cast zinc alloy with colored enamel and the ACME logo engraved on the back. This cufflink is packaged in a black ACME flannel pouch with the designer's bio card, perfect for a stocking stuffer.

Eso Surfaces Cement Blocks ($50)

Eso Surfaces is a family-run business that pulls inspiration from mid-century architecture to re-create beautiful geometric tiles and blocks. The Frank Lloyd Wright Collection was influenced by the blocks from four of his renowned Southern California homes and includes textile blocks and 3D cement tiles, available in four different designs. Eso's stunning interpretations of Wright's work are executed to the highest quality standards so that designers, architects and homeowners can be inspired to bring this rich legacy into homes, offices and landscapes.

State Forty Eight Saguaro Tee ($34) & Matching Onesie ($26.50)

Both are representing an exclusive collaboration between the Foundation and apparel brand State Forty Eight, two of Arizona's most recognizable organizations. Featuring an adaptation of Wright's Saguaro Forms design placed inside a silhouette of the state of Arizona on the front, and the logos of Taliesin West and State Forty Eight on the back, both items are made with 100% cotton and are perfect for styling the whole family this holiday season. ❖

ANNOUNCES SECOND VALLEY LOCATION

Cooper's Hawk Winery & Restaurants, a lifestyle brand ranked among the largest U.S. wineries, brings its unique blend of a full restaurant inside a winery setting to Chandler. Cooper's Hawk brings its modern, casual dining experience in an inviting upscale setting to the Chandler Fashion Center at 3325 Chandler Blvd. on the Southwest corners of Chandler Blvd. and Price. This will be the brand's second west coast location with the Scottsdale restaurant as its first having opened successfully in December of 2020.

"My team and I are excited to be opening our second West Coast location in Chandler," Founder and CEO Tim McEnery said. "At Cooper's Hawk we do not believe wine should be intimidating or complicated. Our focus is on creating great tasting wine and helping our guests discover the ones that suit their taste. We create the wine first, then the menu. Our chefs develop dishes that pair best with each wine. Our guests tell us their dining experience is unique and unforgettable."

Cooper's Hawk is a privately-owned company with 46 locations across the U.S. to date. Its Chandler location marks the company's 47th restaurant with its two Arizona restaurants as its furthest west coast locations.

Kelsey Kramer has been named the General Manager of the Chandler Cooper's Hawk Winery and Restaurant. She began her career with Cooper's Hawk in Ashburn, Va. as a bartender. Kramer advanced her career into management positions for other Virginia locations

Pan-Roasted Barramundi

Potato Crusted Scallops

Soy Ginger Atlantic Salmon

Red Wine Braised Short Ribs

Mexican Drunken Shrimp

Braised Short Rib Risotto

and served as Assistant General Manager in Virginia Beach, Va. and Rockville, Md. locations.

“I am beyond thrilled to be able to bring my experience of working on the East Coast to Arizona,” Kramer said. Reflecting on some of the challenges of the pandemic this past year, Kramer states, “With the changes we have experienced in recent times, we have had to reevaluate what matters most. At Cooper’s Hawk we want to provide our guests with meaningful experiences that make them want to come back.”

Each Cooper’s Hawk location welcomes its guests by having them first enter through its Napa style tasting room and gift store. Guests may enjoy a wine tasting with experienced sommeliers guiding them through the experience.

Guests are then escorted to the expansive dining area suitable for both leisurely dining and business meetings, a full-service bar and a large open-air covered patio complete with misters to keep guests cool on warm days. There are also two private dining rooms that can be combined to host events up to 48 people. This private space is equipped with audio and visual capabilities fitting for any private party. Each menu, including one that is gluten free, features dishes that pair naturally with Cooper’s Hawk wines.

Since 2005, Cooper’s Hawk has received over 500 wine awards from various local, national and international wine competitions. The wines are made and aged at the company’s main winery in Illinois and served at locations onsite. While well-established throughout the Midwest, Cooper’s Hawk also has locations from Michigan to Florida, along the East Coast. The first Cooper’s Hawk Winery and Restaurant opened in Orland Park, Ill., in 2005. This year marks the privately held company’s 16th anniversary.

About Cooper’s Hawk Winery & Restaurants

Founded in 2005 by CEO Tim McEnery, Cooper’s Hawk Winery & Restaurants is built upon the belief that food and wine hold the power to forge lasting connections. Cooper’s Hawk is a lifestyle brand centered around wine and focused on creating memorable moments that enrich lives. The concept is a fusion of familiar elements – winery, modern casual restaurant, Napa-style tasting room and artisanal retail market – that has combined to create an entirely new hospitality experience. HULA'S Relaunches Signature Tiki Mug

Get some mugs together at HULA'S Modern Tiki, where they are celebrating the relaunch of its signature HULA'S Modern Primitive tiki mug ($35). Offered for purchase at all three HULA'S locations in Uptown Phoenix, Old Town Scottsdale and High Street, this stylish glazed ceramic mug is custom crafted just for HULA'S by famed tiki artist, Philippe Tilikete, and manufactured by Tiki Farm of California.

Inspired by the now highly collectable HULA'S Modern Primitive tiki mug first offered back in 2009 (and also designed by Philippe Tilikete), this all-new mug boasts the same unusual square shape and super-stylized features, a salute to HULA'S' modern take on the traditional tiki bars of the 1950s and '60s. First popularized in the 1930s by tiki pioneers such as Don Beach and Trader Vic, ceramic tiki mugs are now highly sought after by tiki fans and the general public, with everyone from Disneyland and Star Wars to the Golden Girls offering sold-out tiki mugs.

And Now HULA'S fans can get in on the festive fun, here at the Valley's home for award-winning tiki drinks and island style eats. Recently named the 2021 winner of Phoenix Magazine's Best of the Valley for Happy Hour, HULA'S is also the home of the Mai Tai, with more than 400,000 sold since 2009.

HULA'S Modern Tiki is located at 5114 N. 7th St. in Phoenix (plus Old Town Scottsdale and High Street). For more information, please call (602) 265-8454 or you may visit www.hulasmodernniki.com. ❖

Bushwick Kitchen Partners with Angry Orchard Hard Cider to Create Three New Sizzling Hot Sauces

A duo you never knew you needed, Angry Orchard and Bushwick Kitchen announced the launch of three new Angry Orchard inspired hot sauces that will create a flavor explosion in your mouth: Crisp Apple Jalapeno, Peach Mango Scotch Bonnet and Strawberry Jalapeno. Each flavor is based on a cider in Angry Orchard's deliciously fruity and refreshingly crisp offerings - Crisp Apple, Peach Mango and Strawberry.

"We are so thrilled to be collaborating with such an iconic brand that will help us bring a diverse set of flavor combinations to our customers," said Daniel Doll, CEO of Bushwick. "We're flavor perfectionists here at Bushwick Kitchen - but we like to think out of the box. Angry Orchard's hard ciders offer sweetness and an edge that brings the best collaboration with our flavorful heat."

Building off of an already impressive roster of sauces, this array of new flavors brings a sweet and spicy kick to the well-known Bushwick favorites. Crisp Apple Jalapeno is coming in hot with spicy serrano and jalapeno peppers that is balanced out with everyone's favorite fruit, apples, sourced straight from the Angry Orchard's 60-acre apple orchard in New York's Hudson Valley. Put this hot sauce on the table for Taco Tuesday alongside Angry Orchard's OG Crisp Apple Cider and it is sure to be a crowd pleaser.

If you prefer a little tang, Peach Mango Scotch Bonnet is the perfect sauce for you. It's a blend of bold spices - coriander, cumin, and ginger - and lush peach and mango, and packs the fruity punch of Angry Orchard's Peach Mango flavor into one incredibly flavorful sauce. Dab a little (or a lot) of Peach Mango Scotch Bonnet into a spicy cider margarita for an ideal pairing or drizzled on some Jamaican Jerk Pulled Pork.

Last but not least, Strawberry Jalapeno Hot Sauce combines fresh ruby red pureed strawberries - reminiscent of the flavors in Angry Orchard's Strawberry Fruit Cider - with a red pepper blend of habaneros, jalapenos and their OG gochujang paste for a sauce that brings layers of sweet and smokey heat. Strawberry Jalapeno Hot Sauce adds a fruity flavor to your favorite hummus or guacamole. Designed to help consumers unlock their creativity and adventurous side when it comes to cooking, these new sauces are available at www.bushwickkitchen.com for $13.99. ❖

October Is Overseeding But We Can Still Work On Our PUTTING!

By Tina Tombs, The Arizona Biltmore Golf Club

While the Arizona Biltmore Golf Club courses are closed this month for overseeding - The Adobe Course October 4th through the 24th and The Links Course October 25th through November 14th - we can still work on fundamentals of our putting stroke. All you need is an aluminum yardstick, golf balls, and a glass that is big enough to accept the golf ball. Of course this drill can be done outside on the putting green just like you see me doing in the photos here.

I have been using this practice drill for 35 years and it is a staple in my teaching academy as well. Line up the yardstick to your target (the cup) about 2 feet from the edge of the cup. Make sure the surface is smooth and level. Put the ball on the yardstick a few inches from the back edge of the yardstick and practice rolling the ball so that the ball stays on the yardstick all the way and then rolls the other two feet off the yardstick and into the cup. You can do this drill on the putting green at your home course, or in your own home while the greens are closed for overseed. This is a great way to stay sharp with your putting and be ready to score low once the courses open again. See you on the links!

Tina Tombs is a 2020 Arizona Golf Hall of Fame Inductee, a GOLF Magazine TOP 100 Teacher in America, and two-time LPGA National Teacher of the Year. To schedule your next golf lesson, clinic session you can contact Tina or her staff at www.tinatombs-golf.com and sign on to book your next coaching session. ❖

Welcome To October!

By Matt Vega, General Manager, The Adobe Restaurant at Arizona Biltmore Golf Club

Welcome to October when the summer heat finally breaks, football season is in full swing and golf courses overseed.

Like many of you, I'm a huge sports fan - golf, football, basketball...you name a sport, I love to play it and/or watch it. Appetizers and sports go hand in hand, and The Adobe has some great apps to enjoy. From our Hole-in-One Nachos and Hot Wings, to our Gimme Sliders and Philly Cheesesteak Bites, we've got an appetizer to satisfy any craving. You can enjoy these appetizers right here at the Adobe, or we can prepare them for you to enjoy in the comfort of your own home.

With the cooler temperatures comes overseeding time at the Arizona Biltmore Golf Courses. The Adobe Course will be closed for overseeding October 4th through the 24th, and The Links Course will be closed for overseeding October 25th through November 14th. Fortunately, the Adobe Restaurant is open the entire time, so don't be afraid to stop-by and enjoy some patio time.

I look forward to seeing you at the Adobe Restaurant in October. Please feel free to stop by and say hello if we have not met yet! ❖

Hawk Salvage Hosting Fall Community Plant Swap

Located in the historic Grand Avenue arts district, Hawk Salvage features a carefully curated selection of vintage, industrial, reclaimed, antique, one-of-a-kind finds and oddities, as well as an extensive selection of rare and unique house plants. On Sunday, October 17th from 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., Hawk Salvage will host its first-ever community Plant Swap. Mix and mingle with fellow plant lovers, learn tips and tricks from other green thumbs, and take home some new greenery to liven up a home or office space.

To participate in the Plant Swap, bring at least one live and healthy plant or rooted cutting for trading with another plant or clipping of equal size. Hawk Salvage will have planting stations and soil available for use for a small fee of up to $10 depending upon the size of the plant. Bring a pot or peruse the selection of unique pots and glassware for sale at Hawk Salvage. For those looking to further expand their plant collection, the store will have some rare, imported plants available for purchase, such as Medusa's Head from South Africa, Gonolobus, a vining plant with edible fruit from Mexico, as well as several types of Pothos, Monsteras and Philodendrons. During the event, there will be live music, food trucks, and artist demonstrations.

Hawk Salvage was founded by Greg Hawk (a.k.a. Hawk), a retired Phoenix Fire Department Captain and a self-proclaimed picker. What started as a hobby has turned into a lifelong passion for discovering history's lost treasures. A keen eye and a knack for unearthing rare gems, Hawk travels the U.S. with a truck and trailer, personally hand selecting every item for the store. Not your typical vintage home decor store, you won't find any chalk painted furniture, inspirational signs, or pallet wood DIY at Hawk Salvage. From the building, which was previously a 1940s auto-otive shop, to everything in the store, it all has a story. Hawk is happy to share them with everyone who comes through the doors.

While the inventory constantly changes, items often found in the store include: antique apothecary bottles, unique antique furniture, tin-types and ambrotypes photography, ephemera, postmortem items (including human skulls that were used as teaching models), original artwork from the 1700s, including oil paintings, pencil and charcoal drawings, lithographs, woodcuts and etchings, religious sculptures, old maps as well as hard-to-find plants.

Hawk Salvage is located at 1109 Grand Avenue in Phoenix. The store is typically open Friday and Saturday, noon to 8:00 p.m. and Sunday from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 pm, with expanded hours during holidays and First Friday. New items are regularly posted on Instagram @HawkSalvage. For more information, please visit www.hawksalvage.com. ❖

NEW MENU & LIVE MUSIC AT MIX UP BAR AT ROYAL PALMS RESORT AND SPA

In need of a moody, super-chic spot to start or end a night out? Mix Up Bar at the iconic Royal Palms Resort and Spa has a brand-new food and cocktail menu that perfectly fits the bill. Featuring fresh garden-to-glass libations, elevated bites and live music on Friday and Saturday nights, Mix Up Bar lives up to its Food & Wine honor of “Coziest Restaurant in Arizona”.

Set at the foot of Camelback Mountain with views of the historic Mansion Courtyard, Mix Up Bar has expertly crafted a menu to pair seamlessly with the intimate and elegant atmosphere while incorporating elements of the treasured legacy at T. Cook’s to create a unique experience. See below for a few of the highlights on the menu.

Specialty Cocktails (All $15)

- Flora Collins: Titos, elderflower, passionfruit and Fever-Tree sparkling lemon soda.
- Marie Antoinette: Bombay Sapphire, honeysuckle liqueur, Mionetto Brut Prosecco and lemon.
- Royal ‘44: Bacardi Superior, Zaya Gran Reserva, Liquid Alchemist Orgeat, Cointreau and lime.
- Verão Sangria: Pinot grigio, peach liqueur, Twisted Alchemy Watermelon, white rum and seasonal fruit.
- Avion De Mezcal: Carreño Espadin – Joven Mezcal, aperol, Amaro Nonino and lemon.
- Desert Mirage: Bulleit, China-China, rosemary syrup, Peychaud’s bitters and Fever-Tree sparkling lemon soda.
- Blended Melody: “X” by Glenmorangie, spiced pear liqueur, elderflower and orange bitters.

Notable Bites

- T. Cooks Burger ($19): Sharp cheddar, red onion, heirloom tomato, garlic aioli, pretzel bun, fries.
- T. Cooks Muffalata ($19): Henrietta bread, olive salad, mortadella, pepperoni, prosciutto, salami, provolone, burrata, fries.
- 4 Poached Shrimp & 4 Poached Crab Claws ($32): Served with cocktail sauce.

Happy hour is set daily from 2:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. which includes 50% all bites, $5 draft beers, $8 house wines and $10 select cocktails. After happy hour, enjoy live entertainment on Fridays and Saturdays from local artists at Mix Up Bar from 6:00 p.m. to 9:00 p.m. ❖

Locals and visitors can “give the gift” of holiday dining and enjoy the restaurants’ specialties of the house including:

- SUGAR-CURED DUCK BREAST served with Brussels Sprouts, Onion Jam and a Cherry Demi Glaze
- DOUBLE CUT PORK CHOP with Mashed Potato, Maple Grain-Mustard Glaze and Tomato Jam
- ROARING FORK’S BIG ASS BURGER served with Cheddar Cheese, Smoked Peppered Bacon, Lettuce, Onion, Pickles and French Fries
- SPIT-ROASTED HALF CHICKEN with Mashed Potato, Seasonal Vegetable, and Roasted Garlic Jus
- BONELESS BUTTERMILK FRIED CHICKEN served with Mashed Potato and Peppercorn Gravy
- CEDAR PLANK SALMON with Teriyaki Apricot Glaze, and Seasonal Vegetable
- RAINBOW TROUT served with Seasonal Vegetable, Roasted Almonds, Capers and Brown Butter
- BACON-WRAPPED PORK TENDERLOIN with Poblano Cheese Grits and Mexican Street Corn
- BRAISED BEEF SHORT RIBS served with Horseradish Mashed Potato and Tomato Jam

About Roaring Fork

Roaring Fork's Wood Fired Cooking captures the spirit of bold American cuisine, creating flavors that crackle with a rugged edge. In the Old West, the best food was prepared on a simple wood fire. This same spirit, freshness and flavor are at the heart of every dish served at Roaring Fork. Select from chicken, beef, pork and fresh fish entrees all perfectly prepared by wood fire rotisserie, open flame grill or wood oven roasting. Roaring Fork is located at 4800 North Scottsdale Road in Scottsdale Arizona. For more information call 480-947-0795 or visit the website at www.roaringfork.com.

Blue Hound Kitchen & Cocktails Launches New Culinary Adventures & Libations The Perfect Urban Setting for a Taste of Phoenix

Blue Hound Kitchen & Cocktails at the Hotel Palomar Phoenix is renowned for its undiscovered flavors and award-winning cocktail program. Now, the hotel's new Executive Chef, Brian Peterson, has taken dining to a new level with a menu that debuted at the end of August. Described as New American Cuisine, guests can savor dishes that range from sophisticated shareable plates to an impressive, curated beef program. They can also be paired with a mind-blowing line up of new creative cocktails.

“The menu is very approachable and made with the freshest, all-natural, quality ingredients that are seasonally sourced from the area's best local farmers,” said Chef Peterson. “The vibrancy and energy of our downtown Phoenix location is exhilarating and we are thrilled that our neighborhood restaurant is in the center of it all.”

The Menu

Some of the most notable Starters and Sharables include comfort foods such as local Noble Bread accompanied with house-cultured butter and sea salt or the adult-styled Mac & Cheese served with linguica, tallegio, grape, arugula and sambuca. Other options include Chef's specialty Chicken Wings with whipped carrots, celery heart and Pt. Reyes blue cheese; Fried Brussels Sprouts served with Manchego, green peppercorn aioli and lemon zest; Beef Cheek Poutine with cheese curds, giardenerra and bone marrow gravy; and a Mushroom Pate served with carrot jam, pickled and onion charred toast points.

New tantalizing entrees include daily chef-driven creations such as the “Pasta of the Moment” or “Chef's Cut of the Day” served with Pt. Reyes blue cheese potato, spinach, mushroom and brandy demi. Other menu items include BBQ Scallop & Charred Octopus served with ranch carrots and corn relish or the Faroe Island Salmon served with corn butter, red cabbage, fennel and zucchini. The BHKC Burger with hand cut fries includes freshly ground Black Angus beef, piled high with cheddar, house-made bacon, pickle, white onion and a sassy secret BH sauce.

For those seeking a surprise culinary adventure, “Trust the Team” is a five-course menu inspired by the Blue Hound culinary team with options for wine pairings and crafted cocktail pairings.

Craft Drafts and Sips

The first to start the “Craft Cocktail Movement” in the area, Blue Hound's spirits scene showcases a passion for quality using all-natural and creative options including syrups and tinctures that are made by hand and juices that are freshly squeezed daily. Some of the signature libations include the Blue Hound Signature Old Fashioned; Buffalo Tears, Red & Smoky; War of the Roses and the Machinist featuring top-notch gins and brown spirits. The beverage list also includes a variety of microbrews, bourbon flights, champagne, wine and local draft beers.
