

Agenda

Information Governance Leadership Summit

Day One, March 30, Regency Ballroom, Horton Grand Hotel

8am Breakfast & Networking

9am Introduction & Kickoff

Policy Drafting Workshop

Lewis Eisen, JD, CIP

- Goals of Information Governance Policies
- When Does a Rule Need to be a Policy?
- InfoGov Policy Issues
- Policy Components
- Policy Frameworks

12:30pm Group Lunch

1:30pm

- Policy Statements
- Choosing the Right Language
- Standards
- Roadmap for Moving Forward

Note: Two coffee and refreshment breaks will be provided, one in the AM and one in the PM both days, with coffee, tea, water and soft drink service all day both days.

5pm-7pm Networking Reception

To close the first day, we will hold a Networking Reception at the hotel, with appetizers and an open bar. We want to encourage forming bonds and long-term business relationships to help advance careers, and the field of IG.

Information Governance Leadership Summit

Day Two, March 31, Regency Ballroom, Horton Grand Hotel

Day 2: Privacy Program Management and Info Risk Management Workshops

Privacy & Cybersecurity expert, Justine Phillips, Partner at the major law firm DLA Piper, along with Cybersecurity expert Matt Stamper, CIPP/US, CISA, CISM, CRISC, CDPSE, QTE, the "CISO to CISOs" will present a two-part workshop on Privacy Program Management, and Information Risk Management, based on their book, "Data Privacy Program Guide: How to Build a Privacy Program the Inspires Trust."

8am Breakfast & Networking

9am Introduction & Kickoff

Privacy Program Management Workshop

- Preparing the Program
- Elements of a Privacy Program
- Privacy Technology
- Privacy Lifecycle
- Global Privacy Regulations
- Privacy by Design

12:30PM Lunch

1:15pm Panel Discussion on Information Risk

2pm Info Risk Management Workshop

- Risk Assessments
- Vendor Risk Management
- A Holistic Approach to Reasonable Security
- Data Breach Response
- Handling Data Subject Requests
- Tying it All Together

4:30pm Adjourn