Why order your driving record?

Your driving record (also called a driving abstract, driver's abstract, abstract driving record, or ADR) will show if you have:

- Violations
- Citations
- Convictions
- Departmental actions
- Collisions

How to buy a copy of your driving record

Each copy of your driving record costs $15. Be prepared to pay when you place your order.

Buy a copy online

Log in or join License eXpress to buy a copy of your own driving record. You must be a Washington resident to use this option.

Buy a copy by mail

Fill out and mail in a Driving Record Request form (English, Español, Русский, and more).

Buy a copy at a driver licensing office

Visit one of our driver licensing offices to buy a copy of your driving record.

How to obtain your Full Washington State driving record

Follow this link to obtain your full WA state driving record.

Green CarShare requires that its members have a clean driving record within three years of application to join.

If you have lived in Washington for less than three years, please obtain your full WA state driving record. Green CarShare will determine what if any additional driving record may be required from your former state or country.

Follow the steps to log in or join Licence eXpress, a Washington State licensing online service. When you reach the summary web page shown at right, proceed to Print Documents to download your Full WA state driving record. Driving records may also be obtained by mail or at a DMV office for $15.

Email your record and any questions to greenarshare-support@islandrides.org
