

ROOTS. ROCK. REGGAE. PHILLY STYLE.

JAH PEOPLE is a collection of individual personalities and talents rolled into one big musical spliff!

Core members—Dean Rubenstein, Alesia Dessau, Noah Sokoloff, Andrew Walls, Mike Stankus, and Anthony Gentile—have been sharing melodic messages of love, spirituality, and unity with audiences and communities since 2011.

In 2015, JAH PEOPLE released their first original album, RISING HIGH, which included an updated version of Marley's "Exodus," and guest appearances from Philly rap legend FREEWAY and reggae staple RAS PROFESSOR. Positive fan responses have led to coveted stages, such as The Fillmore in Philadelphia, Brooklyn Bowl in New York City, and The Hamilton in Washington, D.C.
