POLICY 1.5 US DEFENDER PROGRAM

ABATE of Washington (ABATE) is a Motorcycle Rights Organization (MRO) in Washington State. ABATE of Washington will endorse and conditionally participate in US Defenders program as it applies to ABATE as a MRO in Washington State. As stated in the Confederation of Clubs (COC), Washington State Defenders program (Defenders), ABATE likewise recognizes the need to fight for, protect and preserve our Constitutional rights and civil liberties at both the state and federal levels. ABATE further recognizes that the Defenders program is an essential grassroots program, that promotes good motorcycle legislation and motorcycle rights, by mobilizing and coordinating manpower action efforts in Washington State. ABATE is structured to operate through a Board of Directors (BOD), to set agenda items; and through Legislative Affairs Officer (LAO) committee, to plan, create and promote proactive motorcycle legislation. ABATE communicates with other State and Federal MRO's, to share information; discover methods of legislation; watch for issues; design unified strategies; and the overall protect Motorcycle rights.

ABATE respectfully requests that the COC and Defenders program recognize the need for a true coalition, and ABATE of Washington's desire to be treated as a full member of the COC in regard to the Defenders program as it pertains to Legislative and Motorcycle rights. In working with the Defenders program, ABATE has outlined the following participation policy (following the format of the Defenders Policy), that keeps in mind the structure and consistent integrity of the Washington State COC:

1. Basic Structure.
 - a. ABATE structure of Executive Committee (ECOM), BOD, and LAO Committee, will continue to be the official policy and manner of operation without change to titles. The voting members of the BOD (Chapter Coordinators, and ECOM members) will be called upon to vote through parliamentary procedure, to set the official agenda of ABATE. The State LAO is charged with maintaining consistency with the legislative agenda of ABATE, and coordinating with the Commander of the Defenders program. The State LAO, and the Coordinator of ABATE, will be the official point of communication with the Defenders Calls to Action (CTA), prepared by the Commander Defenders program, and will respond based upon that are relevance to ABATE as an MRO in Washington State. The relevant form letters and responses will be channeled as communications through official email from the Commander (or designee), to ABATE of Washington (legislative@abate-wa.org; coordinator@abate-wa.org).
 - b. ABATE will disseminate approved CTA's to its membership through email and through the ABATE of Washington website. Each ABATE chapter is responsible for gathering information and legislative letters from their group and returning them to the State LAO (to be transferred to the Defenders Commander (or designee)).

- c. The COC will not act as the agent of accountability enforcement. Honor and respect are given to those that honor and respect their agreements.
 - d. ABATE will maintain official position titles and expand responsibilities of those positions, as needed, to maintain consistency and integrity in regard to the Defender program.
2. Wearing of Defender patches is purely optional and a matter of choice.
3. ABATE will not specifically extend itself to authorities for the purpose of civil service or aid in natural disasters. Other states and federal requests may still occur, but participation would be optional.
4. ABATE chapters and members are not "Locked-In" to every request for action in case of political or moral opposition. This is a democracy and an abstention from a call to action will be respected.
5. ABATE, through a majority vote of the BOD, will have ongoing participation with the Defenders program. I.E.; ABATE reserves the right to appoint or change in-house titles, policies and involvement with the Defenders through a majority vote of ECOM or the BOD dependent on the issue, and inform the Defenders of any change to policy in regard to ABATE involvement. This also includes the right to structure and shape of involvement with the Defenders program as time goes on to reflect the concerns and realities of Washington State.
6. ABATE will participate in Legislative Affairs in coalition with the COC/Defenders, and will not be held responsible for funding the Defenders program in Washington State. Predictable expenses include mailings and photocopies of letters to legislators and bureaucrats. Any extraordinary expenses that are incurred shall be the responsibility of the COC.
