

WEDDING AND EVENTS SINGER REPERTOIRE - 2025

Picking the soundtrack to your special day can feel really overwhelming at the best of times, but especially when your chosen wedding singer has over 600+ songs on her repertoire to choose from - eek!

To try and help with this and make it easier to find your favourites, I've categorised each song alphabetically by the artist, most of the songs listed are able to be performed as the original version and/or an acoustic version unless specifically listed as an acoustic version only. There are some songs that multiple artists have covered too, and I will usually be able to perform whichever version you like best.

I will be able to have a bespoke version of almost any song created by the wonderful company I work closely with, so if you don't spot your favourite song on here yet, please don't panic - just let me know and I'll be happy to look into learning new songs for you!

You can also find a link to listen through all of the songs my repertoire on Spotify HERE

If you need any extra help or suggestions at any time - please just pop an email across to me and I will be happy to help!
