

GOSPEL OF JOHN MISSION, INC.

November, 2025

During this season of Thanksgiving, our hearts are overflowing with gratitude to God. We give thanks for the incredible blessings He has allowed us to experience this year. Those blessings include:

- The ability to serve God in orphanages and bring hope and love to children who need it most.
- The privilege to serve deaf people in Moldova and Ukraine, by offering support, connection, and the message of Christ in manners they can receive.
 - The open doors we receive to minister in prisons, hospitals, schools, and even government run after-school clubs, where we can share encouragement, prayer, and the transforming love of God.
- The opportunity to evangelize and disciple adults by walking with people as they grow deeper in faith and purpose.
 - And the honor of being missionaries in different parts of Moldova, bringing light to communities across the nation.

As we, the workers of Gospel of John Mission reflect on these blessings, we are reminded that God is working through every step we take, every conversation we have, and every person we meet.

Together, we can make a powerful difference in the lives of those around us—every day, in every place, and in every moment.

“Give thanks to the Lord, for He is good; His love endures forever.” — Psalm 107:1

Vitaly & Natasha Boxeneanu

Winter is approaching, and with it comes a season that can be especially heavy for those who are struggling. While many of us prepare our homes with decorations and festivities, there are families around us quietly fighting battles that often go unseen—battles against hunger, cold nights, and the fear of not having enough to care for their children.

God allowed us the privilege of reaching 20 families in need with food and support. As we handed out each package, we witnessed tears of relief, smiles and hearts that felt seen.

Every family we met carries a story—stories of resilience, of pain, of hope held onto by fragile threads. And yet, through the simple act of giving, we saw those threads begin to strengthen. This is what love does. This is what community does. This is what God calls us to do.

As we enter this cold season, may we remember that small acts of kindness can become someone's answer to prayer. Let us continue to be the hands and feet of Christ, spreading warmth where there is cold, hope where there is fear, and love where there is need.

“Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and He will repay him for his deed.” — Proverbs 19:17

May we keep giving, keep loving, and keep shining His light.

Serghei Bolgar & Prison & Discipleship Ministry

Praise God for the opportunity to continue serving refugees from Ukraine! Many thanks to the church members and the missionary family for their desire to serve those in need! About 120 people attended our last meeting! They were divided into three groups. During the meeting, our guests fellowshiped, studied Scripture and asked questions.

We thank the Lord and all who donate financially to support this ministry! Thanks to this, we are able to help these people meet their material and physical needs!

Glory to Jesus Christ!

Julie Mardari & Children’s Ministry

We’re so thankful to God for the precious opportunity to serve the children of Moldova. Throughout this year, our Children’s Ministry Team has been blessed to share God’s love in many different places—orphansages, hospitals, centers for children with special needs, and weekly clubs for vulnerable kids. Each week we meet around 200 children, and every encounter is a reminder of God’s tender heart toward them.

God has allowed us to pour out His love, His care, His Word, and His forgiveness, and we have tried to become true friends to these little ones. Our desire is that, through us, they would feel the warm embrace of their Heavenly Father and discover that in Him there is hope, a future, and a place where they are deeply cherished.

We are especially grateful that God has also provided the means to meet not only the spiritual needs of these children, but some of their physical needs as well. Our teachers go to their lessons each day with so much creativity, dedication, and prayer, seeking to reflect the heart of Christ in everything they do.

Thank you to everyone who prays, supports, and stands with us. Through your faithfulness, the Lord continues His beautiful work.

“Let the little children come to Me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of Heaven belongs to such as these.” — Matthew 19:14

🙏🙏🙏 Thank you for your continued support that allows us to support workers of Moldova. Please pray for all possibilities, open doors and God’s miracles in lives of people in Moldova. 🙏🙏🙏

Sincerely yours,
