

Jude Rose

An established Australian artist specialising in miniature oil on canvas landscapes, hand coloured linocuts and ink drawings on hand made paper.

Born in Darwin NT, travelled extensively throughout Europe, South America, Africa and Asia to study art, including two years at Beaux Arts in Paris.

Returned to Sydney and studied at various colleges then became a renowned textile designer, a high achievement being designer of the Commonwealth Games swimsuit fabric, an Aboriginal theme, in 1982.

Jude is inspired by many Australian artists and the great Italian masters, Mexican and Asian art.
