

Jude Rose

An established Australian artist specialising in miniature oil on canvas landscapes, and more recently, using watercolour and pencil on Birchwood panels. For the past several years, Rose has continued her exploration of topiary style landscapes and vistas, along with her continued pursuit in hand coloured unique state linocuts and ink drawings on paper.

Born in Darwin NT, travelled extensively throughout Europe, South America, Africa and Asia to study art, including two years at Beaux Arts in Paris.

Returned to Sydney and studied at various colleges then became a renowned textile designer, a high achievement being designer of the Commonwealth Games swimsuit fabric, an Aboriginal theme, in 1982.

Jude is inspired by many Australian artists, the great Italian masters, plus Mexican and Asian art.
