NASHVILLE, TN (November 27, 2024) --Fresh off of Season 26 of The Voice, recent Team Snoop Dogg contestant Gail Bliss is getting into the holiday spirit with a brand new music video telling her own personal story of a Christmas almost gone blue, turned into "Holly & Mistletoe." The video is available today, Friday, November 29th WATCH HERE, as well as on Gail's YouTube Channel, CLICK HERE, and on Gail's Facebook page, CLICK HERE.

The music video is a light-hearted escape from the hustle and bustle of the first big shopping day of the season. And what a story behind the song. "Holly & Mistletoe," available now on radio and at gailbliss.hearnow.com. It is a true story about Gail's reaction to her husband John's announcement that he would be taking a 7 month job in Antarctica, which meant, he would NOT be home for the holidays. Gail's real life husband John stars in the video as the two playfully navigate Gail's 'Home Alone' Christmas and their belated celebration upon his return, all under the direction of Carl Diebold who brought the story and song to life through captivating video.

For the oldest contestant ever on The Voice, at a young 61 years of age, Gail Bliss has one of the liveliest performances with outstanding, soulful vocals and flirty lyrics that will have fans rocking around the Christmas Tree. Be sure to watch her new music video, "Holly & Mistletoe" this Friday.

In the meantime, the song has been added to the Spotify "Women of Country Christmas 2024 Holiday" playlist and Apple Music's "New In Holiday" playlist.

Monday, December 2nd Gail Bliss will be on the Woman of Substance Music Podcast. Plus, Gail will be featured on the Tim Kelly Show on KICR Indie Country Radio on Thursday, January 2 at 5pm central time to showcase more of her music. That is just the beginning of a busy year ahead.

Gail is an accomplished entertainer, having graced the stages of Broadway, the Grand Ole

Opry, and many a honky tonk across North America, as well as being recognized from the NBC competition The Voice. She's shared the stage with some of the most legendary entertainers from Kenny Rogers to Barbara Fairchild, The Jordanares and Vassar Clements. Her seven professional recordings are steeped in classic country, western swing and country gospel and feature her work also as a songwriter and producer. Gail had the honor of stepping into the boots of legendary Patsy Cline in the theatrical production "A Closer Walk With Patsy Cline" and was affiliated with this show for 30 years. Gail is the oldest contestant on season 26 of The Voice and one of the oldest contestants ever in the United States; still living, still dreaming and still inspiring others to fulfill their dreams, no matter the age. After turning 60 recently, Gail set out to do six EPIC things. To have landed herself on the team of Snoop Dogg on NBC's The Voice was indeed EPIC. She also works as an international flight attendant and is ever fascinated by the various cultures around the world and the music that accompanies them. Bliss sums it up by saying, "I have pursued and accomplished so many of the dreams I have set for my life, but I am always dreaming big, and I don't ever plan to stop. I have traveled the world, sang my songs with some of the best musicians on the planet on many a big stage, parasailed off a cliff in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, visited the Holy Land, run a 26.2 mile marathon, and raced a motorcycle up a mountain and down again."
