NCH Bakery Delivery Driver– Job Description

NCH Bakery is looking for an associate to join the team of this 93-year-old Cincinnati icon. NCH Bakery is a wholesale bakery delivering our fresh baked goods to our retail partners throughout Cincinnati. See our website for a list of our retail partners.

We're looking for a morning delivery driver with the following qualities:

- Must have excellent customer-facing skills
- Must be extremely dependable
- Must have a clean driving record (this will be verified with your insurance provider)
- Experience driving a Ford E350 Econoline Van or similar vehicle is desired, but not required

The position is part-time for 10-25 hours per week. We deliver to our retail partners on Tuesday through Saturday mornings. Exact days and schedule to be determined.

Success Factors:

- Excellent interpersonal skills in dealing with customers and other team members
- Flexibility in switching between the above activities as business needs dictate
- Good follow-ship skills in interactions with the general manager and owners
- Punctual and reliable attendance

Physical Demands:

The job candidate should be able and willing to:

- Load and stack crates of bakery products into the delivery van.
- Unload and un-crate bakery products at customers' locations.
- Rotate stock and re-stock customer shelves with bakery products
- Bend and lift up to 25 lbs.

Candidates will be asked to complete an NCH Bakery employment application. Applicants must provide at least one professional reference from a previous employer that validates workplace dependability.