Community Partner Spotlight

Jessie's Place is a Children's Advocacy Center designed to be warm and welcoming, so that child victims of abuse and neglect have a safe haven to tell their story and begin the road to recovery. We provide all necessary services onsite – at one location – to help traumatized children feel like happy children once again.

DV Fact of The Month

Most children who have experienced violence won't be violent to others when they grow up.

Mindful Memo

"Mindfulness is a pause – the space between stimulus and response: that's where choice lies." – Tara Brach
