

Kamp Kiwanis Release

Southwest District Kiwanis Foundation and Kamp Kiwanis (collectively the “Hosts”) hold the safety of the students and adults participating in Southwest District Key Leader (the “Event”) in the highest possible regard. However, participants and parents registering their students in the Event must recognize there is an inherent risk of injury when choosing to participate in a wilderness camp-based program.

We, the undersigned, recognize and acknowledge there are certain risks of physical injury to participants in the Event, including, but not limited to, unpaved trails, forested grounds, recreational equipment and ropes course, and remoteness from medical facilities.

We, the undersigned agree to assume the full risk of any injuries, damages or loss, regardless of severity, which I or my minor child/ward may sustain as a result of participating in any and all activities connected with or associated with the Event.

We, the undersigned agree to waive and relinquish all claims I or my minor child/ward may have against the Hosts and its officers, agents, volunteers and employees as a result of participation in the program.

We, the undersigned, do hereby fully release and discharge the Hosts and their officers, agents, volunteers and employees from any and all claims from injury, damage or loss with the activities of the Event.
