

HELPING OTHERS

Local Resource Listing for Cherokee County, SC

Introduction

Helping Others is written for the people of Cherokee County, South Carolina. Its small file size makes it easily shared by attaching the file to a text or email, or by posting on your website. Thank you for sharing this booklet – helping others is the right thing to do!

We believe many people would like to help their neighbors, but don't know how to go about it. Some people cannot help financially, or by providing goods, services, or physical labor to fix problems. But everyone can listen, talk to people, and to share the information in this booklet - so in this way we all can help others.

This booklet summarizes information from the Internet, local non-profits, and government agencies. Information is categorized by needs, so you will find some organizations listed in multiple categories. Services that are only available to residents of other counties have been excluded. Links in each paragraph will take you to the source webpage for more information.

A few of the services have offices in Spartanburg, but they are listed in this booklet because Cherokee County residents are also able to apply for the programs.

For those seeking statewide or nationwide assistance, we have included sections near the end for "24/7 Help Lines", and "Resource Locator Websites" which will lead you to thousands of organizations.

This booklet is maintained by two community volunteers and we don't know everything, so we need your help. Please send an email to HelpingOthersCherokee@gmail.com if you know of local resources that should be included or find anything that needs correction.

Click here to view or download the latest version of this booklet, or scan the QR code, or send us an email if you prefer to receive your files that way. When we update this booklet, we change the date on the bottom of this page, so you can use the date to see if there is a more recent version.

Income-Based Qualification

The U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) publishes the federal poverty guidelines each year, based on poverty thresholds calculated by the U.S. Census Bureau.

Eligibility for some of the needs-based programs in this booklet are based on this table. The table is updated annually in late January. This table gives you a good idea about your eligibility, but programs change all the time, and there may be exceptions to the dollar amounts listed in this table. Also, some types of income may be excluded, so always check with the agency.

Example use of table: A family of 4 wants to apply for a program that bases qualification on 185% of the Federal Poverty Level. The table shows household income must be below $59,478.

| 2025 Annual Income Federal Poverty Levels by Percentage | | | | | | | |
|---------------------------------------------------------|----------|----------|----------|----------|----------|-----------|-----------|
| Household Size | 100% | 130% | 150% | 160% | 165% | 185% | 200% |

Disabilities and Special Needs

Cherokee County Disabilities and Special Needs Board

<https://www.cherokeedsnb.org/>

959 E. O'Neal St, Gaffney, SC 29340, (864) 487-4190

The Cherokee County Disabilities and Special Needs Board (CCDSNB) provides a variety of services and support to children and adults with lifelong special needs, and their families.

Case Management – Services offered by Case Management include, but are not limited to, appropriate medical, social, educational, job training and a variety of other needed services.

Residential Services - CCDSNB has five Community Training Homes. Staff members provide guidance and assistance for every resident on a daily basis. Each Community Training Home houses four individuals, and training is provided to guide each individual towards greater independence in their lives.

CCDSNB has two Intermediate Care Facilities. These community residences offer a community living option to those people who need maximum support for their high levels of need. 24-hour care, supervision, training, recreation and other activities are provided in this structured environment.

Adult Day Programs – In the Work Activity Center program a skilled instructor works with individuals in areas such as communication skills, daily living skills, academic areas, and other goal areas of assessed need. Individuals also receive instruction in the areas of pre-vocational and vocational skills, and are compensated with wages for contract work completed.

The Mobile Work Crews program provides work for individuals through local businesses and industry. In a mobile work crew, CCDSNB sends a group of individuals and a CCDSNB staff supervisor to a local industry or business site to complete assigned duties as directed.

In the Supported Employment program, a Job Coach assesses individuals for job readiness, assists individuals in searching for employment, and provides on-the-job training and supervision until job skills are mastered.

Community Service is aimed at developing one's awareness of, interaction with and/or participation in their community through exposure to and experience in the community through teaching such concepts as self-determination, self-advocacy, and socialization. Group and individual services are offered in this area.

<https://www.cacsp.org/>

100 Washington Place, Spartanburg, SC 29302, (864) 515-9922, Executive Director Elizabeth Tisdale, elizabeth@cacsp.org

The Children's Advocacy Center (CAC) of Spartanburg, Cherokee and Union Counties, Inc. opened in 1996 as a nonprofit organization to provide services to children who have been sexually and/or severely physically abused. CAC provides:

- Forensic Assessments - A child-friendly and non-leading interview essential in obtaining age-appropriate information when a child may have experienced sexual abuse, physical abuse, or witnessed a violent crime
- Medical Examinations (off-site) - Physical examinations that identify immediate and ongoing needs of each child, whether incurred by the alleged abuse or otherwise
- Trauma-Focused Therapy - Counseling to heal the child's specific trauma and overcome wounds that have the potential to be lasting and destructive if left untreated
- Therapy for Children with Problematic Sexual Behaviors - This therapy program is for children ages 7-14 who have exhibited problematic sexual behaviors. Two CAC clinicians lead the children's group, and two CAC clinicians lead the concurrent caregiver group. Some topics covered include sexual behavior rules, impulse control skills, and behavior management.
- Family Counseling and Support - Support offered throughout the case to help nonoffending caregivers navigate the child welfare systems and understand and effectively respond to their child's feelings and behaviors
- Multidisciplinary Team Meetings - A multidisciplinary response, including law enforcement, prosecutors, medical professionals, therapists, DSS personnel, Guardian ad Litem, etc., to determine the best interests and needs of each child
- Prevention Program - Darkness to Light's Stewards of Children

This two-hour child sexual abuse prevention training equips adults with knowledge and skills to recognize and react responsibly to child sexual abuse.

Please contact CAC at (864) 515-9922 or email info@cacsp.org for more information about these programs.

Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF)

<https://benefitsportal.dss.sc.gov/#/login>

SC Department of Social Services, 113 West Buford Street, Gaffney, SC 29341, (864) 487-2704

The SC Department of Social Services administers the Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) program (formerly known as Family Independence and Aid to Families with Dependent Children). This is a time-limited program that assists families with dependent children when families cannot provide for their basic needs. To qualify you must be a South Carolina resident, be willing to participate in the TANF work program and pursue child support from parents absent from the household. TANF is designed to serve both single-parent and two-parent families, as well as households with disabled adults.

The primary focus of the program is to help low-income families meet basic needs by providing cash assistance, support services, training, and employment opportunities. Use the webpage link to create an account and apply for benefits. <https://benefitsportal.dss.sc.gov/#/login>

TANF Child-Only Grants

SC Department of Social Services, 113 West Buford Street, Gaffney, SC 29341 (864) 487-2704

If you are caring for a relative other than your child who is under the age of 18 (e.g., your grandchild, niece, nephew, sibling, or other qualifying relative by blood, marriage or adoption), you may qualify for federal TANF cash assistance on behalf of the child to help meet their basic needs.

As a caretaker relative, you have two options:

1. You can choose to receive a TANF Child-Only grant for the child(ren) in your care. If you choose to receive benefits solely for the child(ren), your income and resources will not impact the TANF cash benefit amount for your household. Certain income/benefits received for the child(ren) may be counted.
2. You may also choose to receive benefits for yourself as well as the child(ren) in your care. If you choose to be in the TANF benefit group, your income, resources, and/or needs will be included when determining the TANF cash benefit amount for your household.

Children receiving kinship care payments, subsidized adoption or guardianship payments, foster care board payments, or SSI benefits, are not eligible for TANF benefits.

The maximum monthly TANF grant amount is $229 for one child, $308 for two children, and $388 for three children.

Medicare

<https://www.medicare.gov/>

The Department of Health and Human Services provides funding for the Medicare program. Medicare is a medical insurance program, that is available in 4 parts;

- Part A: Hospital insurance (inpatient care, skilled nursing, hospice).
- Part B: Medical insurance (doctor visits, outpatient care).
- Part C: Medicare Advantage (private plans combining A & B, often with extras).
- Part D: Prescription drug coverage

You select the parts that you want to purchase. Medicare is available to those 65 years or older, those with permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or transplant, those with Lou Gehrig's disease, and disabled people who have been collecting Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) for 24 months or longer. Part A is free if you or your spouse worked for at least 10 years and had Medicare taxes deducted from your paycheck.

The SC Housing Trust Fund (HTF) helps low and very-low income households through three primary programs; Home Repair, Critical Home Repair and Supportive Housing. SC HTF programs work through a network of approved nonprofit sponsors and local governments.

Piedmont Community Action is the South Carolina “HTF Approved Sponsor” for Cherokee and Spartanburg counties. The following programs are available for Cherokee County residents:

Home Repair Program

The Home Repair Program funds exterior and interior essential repairs. The Home Repair Program covers more extensive repairs up to $75,000, including lead-based paint, asbestos and mold removal. Home Repairs under $15,000 are provided as a grant. Those over this amount are provided as a “forgivable loan” to the homeowner as long as they maintain the home as their primary residence for the set period.

Critical Home Repair Program

The Critical Home Repair Program funds exterior home repairs that endanger the safety and life of the home, and covers eligible repairs up to $30,000.

Supportive Housing Program

The Supportive Housing Program funds new construction, acquisition, and acquisition/rehabilitation of rental housing with access to supportive services for special needs populations, such as people with disabilities and people experiencing homelessness.

State Housing Authority

<https://schousing.sc.gov/>

The State Housing Authority was created by Act No. 500 on June 22, 1971. SC Housing is the state-level designated administrator of the National Housing Trust Fund (NHTF). By state law, SC Housing's responsibilities are to investigate housing conditions; acquire, own, and lease personal property; construct, reconstruct, and operate housing developments; and aid in planning and constructing housing for members of the Beneficiary Classes. The Beneficiary Classes are individuals or families whose gross annual income falls within the low or moderate to-low-income limits as defined by State and Federal legislation.

The Senior Center is for independent county residents age 60 and older. Outside you will find a 1/4-mile fenced, paved walking track and a covered area with benches. Inside there is an exercise room/gym with stationary bicycles and treadmills, and a small library of fiction books that seniors can read. There are daily activities such as BINGO, games, music, craft activities, and theme days.

We provide transportation, Monday through Friday, to/from our site for those who need a ride, as well as provide transportation for seniors for essential shopping and to/from medical appointments such as dialysis. Occasionally we take the seniors on day trips.

Senior adults, aged 60+, are invited to attend our weekday group/communal meals. We provide hot, nutritionally balanced, USDA-approved meals, socialization, and nutrition education.

Senior Centers of Cherokee County partners with Second Harvest Food Bank of Metrolina to provide a nonperishable supplemental box of nutritional food to Cherokee County residents who are 60 years of age or older. Boxes are provided on a monthly basis to eligible individuals.

We partner with SCDSS to provide the Senior Farmers' Market Nutrition Program (SFMNP), which is a seasonal USDA grant program. They provide participants with access to fresh, nutritious, unprocessed food and vegetables from local farmers' markets. This program is designed to increase awareness and use of community markets.

Social Security

Social Security Benefits

<https://www.ssa.gov/>

Spartanburg - (864) 583-8223, 145 N Church St, Spartanburg, SC. Monday - Friday, 9am – 4pm

Shelby - (877) 405-3576, 707 Schenck St, Shelby, NC 28150. Monday - Friday, 9am – 4pm

The Social Security Administration (SSA) administers Social Security benefits. To qualify for Social Security, you generally need to work and pay Social Security taxes long enough to earn 40 credits—typically 10 years of work. You can get monthly Retirement benefits starting at age 62 if you've worked and paid Social Security taxes. In most cases, you can apply while still working.

Social Security Disability Insurance

<https://www.ssa.gov/disability/disability.html> (800)

772-1213, 8:00am – 7:00pm

Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI) provides monthly payments to people who are unable to work due to a qualifying disability. SSDI is not needs-based - SSDI is based on your work history, not your current income or assets. SSDI has a five-month waiting period before benefits begin, except for ALS patients, so sign-up immediately.

Eligibility is based on having a disability, which SSA defines as the inability to engage in any substantial gainful activity (SGA) due to a medically determinable physical or mental impairment. The impairment must be expected to last for at least 12 consecutive months or result in death, and the condition must prevent the individual from performing any past relevant work or adjusting to other work. Also, you must have worked and paid Social Security taxes long enough to earn sufficient work credits. For 2025, the SGA monthly income limit is $1,620 for non-blind individuals and $2,700 for statutorily blind individuals. If you exceed the SGA limit your SSDI benefits may be suspended or terminated.

If qualified, benefits include monthly payments based on your average lifetime earnings before your disability. After 24 months of SSDI benefits, you become eligible for Medicare, regardless of age.

Supplemental Security Income

Supplemental Security Income (SSI) is a needs-based federal program that provides monthly payments to help cover food, clothing, and shelter for people who are disabled, blind, or age 65 and older. To qualify for SSI your 2025 income and resources must fall below $967/month for individuals and $1,450/month for couples in federal payments, with reductions based on “countable income”. Countable income is a key concept in means-tested programs where income limits apply. (SNAP, Medicaid, and SSI)

Countable income typically includes:

- Earned income: Wages, salaries, self-employment earnings, tips
- Unearned income: Social Security benefits, pensions, unemployment, alimony, interest, dividends
- In-kind support: Free food or shelter provided by someone else
- Deemed income: A portion of a spouse’s or parent’s income (for married individuals or minors)

SSI is administered by the Social Security Administration, but funded by general U.S. Treasury revenues — not Social Security taxes.

Survivor Benefits

Survivor benefits provide monthly payments to eligible family members (spouse, divorced spouse, child, or dependent parent) of people who worked and paid Social Security taxes before they died. You can get a monthly payment and may be eligible for Medicare. Estimate benefits using this website link. <https://www.ssa.gov/survivor/amount>
