LATE NIGHT WEDDING SNACKS

Wedding receptions are a party after all, especially if you've booked a good band or DJ. Despite the fun, late-night dancing can leave guests hungry. Surprise your family and friends with delicious butlered treats toward the end of your reception that will have them back on their feet and ready to hit the dance floor.

A Milan Exclusive! Remember, our chefs create a "pop-up restaurant" to cook and plate up your delicious appetizers and reception menu, and so will these delicious late night bites.
