Dance Technique Class Descriptions

Pre-Ballet and Intro to Ballet: These classes stress developing enjoyment of music and movement as well as an introduction to beginning ballet technique. Students will learn fundamentals and terminology while developing strength, confidence, balance, and flexibility through structured class formats and creative movement techniques

Ballet/TapCombo: This class is an introduction to fundamentals of ballet & tap teaching basic skills, terminology, rhythm, and coordination. It allows students to explore two dance genres and help determine which style to transition to in leveled classes.

Super Hero Bounce: This class is a high energy class that will focus on “jamming” using the fundamentals of dance and rhythms and keep kids moving working on balance, leaps, rolls, spatial awareness, and awareness of how their body moves through space – it will be a FUN and ENERGETIC class that is geared toward beginning dancers.

Ballet: These classes will continue to strengthen and extend ballet technique and terminology at appropriate levels. They will focus primarily on the development of classical ballet technique that is paramount for the development of all styles of dance. Students will continue to learn ballet fundamentals and terminology while developing strength, confidence, balance and flexibility through more advanced barre and center work combinations as they progress.

Pointe: This class is an extension class for intermediate and advanced ballet students with a focus on preparing to dance en pointe and/or working on pointe technique including pulled up muscles, engaged core, strong feet and ankles, and proper body placement. Instructor permission is required to register in this class and use of pointe shoes is at the discretion of the instructor

Jazz/Lyrical: These classes allow dancers to gain and expand their knowledge of the different styles and forms of jazz technique while also exploring the interpretative side of the style. Each class will include a thorough warm-up that focuses on stretching/flexibility, conditioning/toning of the body, isolations, and basic jazz technique and terminology. Progressions across the floor and combinations are the premise of jazz technique and combinations and incorporate various turns/jumps/leaps, isolations, and improving performance quality. Lyrical components will accentuate the exploration of movement through space using jazz fundamentals and apply them to choreography.

Tap: These classes are designed to focus on rhythm, coordination, and tap terminology at appropriate levels. Classes will continue to broaden the students tap vocabulary while moving beyond the fundamentals of tap. Students will put the fundamentals to work by learning new steps, rhythms, patterns, and combinations. Higher level classes will challenge the student to focus on faster and more intricate footwork and continue to clean and refine their tap skills. The dancer at this level will develop speed, clarity, dynamics, and the ability to execute complex rhythmic combinations.

Modern: This class will focus on the development of core strength and flexibility using modern dance technique for all levels of dancers. Students will be challenged to develop body awareness, spatial awareness, and beginning vocabulary of modern dance.

Dress Code for Dance Classes

A dress code ensures that a teacher will be able to see a dancer’s alignment and positioning to allow for corrections for student growth and safety. Pink or light-colored tights also make the lines of the legs visible. A dress code also helps teach students discipline and enhances overall focus and energy of dancers. By "dressing the part," dancers feel like dancers.
