“SAVING FAITH”

Genesis 15:1-6

Main Point: Though God's _____ with Abram is received with a question and concern, Abram responds with four _____ of saving faith.

- I. The first mark of saving faith is _____ on the _____ of God.
 - Rather than relying on _____, saving faith depends on God for our _____.
 - The _____ points beyond itself to a faithful Protector who, in the fullness of time, became flesh to stand between His people and every _____.
 - Believers put on the shield of faith in Christ whose _____ work is the only _____ against sin, death, and judgment.
 - Jesus is the _____ we _____.
- II. The second mark of saving faith is _____ the _____ of God.
 - Abram's question is not evidence of unbelieving _____ but speaks of his longing for God to _____ that which was promised.
 - Saving faith both depends on God as Savior and _____ God to be _____.
 - The _____ of our desire for God's provision results in saving faith.
 - Jesus is the _____ we _____.
- III. The third mark of saving faith is _____ in the _____ of God.
 - Abram _____ by faith the promise made by God that he would be made a great _____.
 - The promise of salvation is a testimony of God's unwavering _____ to _____ His creation.
 - Through faith in Jesus Christ, a person is assured of _____, _____, and eternal _____.
 - Jesus is the _____ we _____.
- IV. The fourth mark of saving faith is _____ to embrace and follow the _____ of God.
 - Saving faith is realized when my dependence, desire, and delight lead me to a decision to _____ the plan of God for my _____.
 - Righteousness is the judicial _____ that declares a person to be “_____!”
