APRIL

Prayer Calendar

from Psalm 22

1. That, like Christ, we hold fast to God in our distresses.
2. That we trust the power of God to sustain us.
3. That we may endure painful reproach with patience.
4. That we not mistrust the faithfulness of God.
5. That God would work transformation in women's hearts and minds during the Women's conference.
6. That we continue to pray though no comfortable answer comes.
7. Remembering God's former kindnesses and His unchanging character.
8. Giving thanks for His past faithfulness.
9. That God be near to us and that we draw near to Him.
10. For those that are alone and lonely.
11. That, like Jesus, we persevere in prayer.
12. That we may experience victory by prayer.
13. That we may have fellowship in the suffering of Christ.
14. That we care less for our body's enjoyment and ease.
15. That we care more for our Father's business.
16. That we think much more of everything connected with Him.
17. That we praise God in our afflictions.
18. That we be quick and often to praise our God.
19. That we grow in humble awe of our God.
20. For joy and boldness to tell what God has done for us!
21. With thanks that God hears our cries for help.
22. That God be both source and focus of our praise.
23. That we seek the LORD as we would the most precious and valuable treasure.
24. For all the peoples of the earth to remember and turn to the LORD.
25. Remembering that we cannot keep ourselves alive nor add a day to our life by worry.
26. Giving thanks for the great promise of eternal life in Christ Jesus.
27. That we not neglect gathering together with our family in Christ.
28. That we be faithful to teach our children and grandchildren about the LORD.
29. Giving thanks that Jesus paid the price for our sins in our place.
30. Praising God that Christ has finished his work on the cross!
