Christ our Mediator in Prayer

"Who is there to condemn us? For Christ Jesus, who died, and more than that was raised to life, is at the right hand of God—and He is interceding for us." Romans 8:34

"All Christian prayer is directed to God through a Mediator, and not even prayer affords direct access to the Father. Only through Jesus Christ can we find the Father in prayer. Christian prayer presupposes faith, that is, adherence to Christ. He is the one and only Mediator of our prayers. We pray at His command, and to that word Christian prayer is always bound."

(Quotes from "The Cost of Discipleship"—The Hiddenness of Prayer
- by Dietrich Bonhoeffer.)

IN THE WELCOME CENTER

B. The church was _____ to the word of Christ. The genuineness of their _____ for their Savior Jesus was demonstrated through their obedience. To 'keep' His word is to maintain it, to _____ to it, to keep your eye upon it, to _____ it.

C. The church did not _____ the name of Jesus Christ. The Philadelphian believers did not _____, disavow, or refuse the _____ of Jesus. The Believer honors the name of Jesus when they _____ as He would live and recognize His position of _____ in their life.

D. The church kept His command to _____ patiently. Jesus promised to guard them and _____ them in the future _____ that would come. He empowers us through His Spirit to be _____ the world, though not _____ the world.

V. The Concern for the Church in Philadelphia

VI. The Command for the Church in Philadelphia (Revelation 3:11b)

The Philadelphian believers had been _____ and faithful to Christ; He commanded them to _____ so. Remaining steadfast and faithful does not _____ salvation but it is a _____ of a person's salvation. The Christ-follower whose faithful _____ marks them as a true child of God does not need to fear _____ their salvation.

VII. The Council to the Church in Philadelphia (Revelation 3:12-13)

Four blessings are promised to the _____.

A. A _____ will be made for him in the temple. In Christ, the Believer will be safe, _____, and _____ in a place of eternal glory!

B. The _____ of My _____ will be written upon him. For the Believer to be marked with the name of God signifies that we _____ to Him. It also reminds us of the _____ we have with Him forever.

C. The name of the _____ of My God will be written upon him. This is another sign of security, safety, and _____ that is promised to God's _____.

D. A _____ name will be given to him. All who overcome will be given a new name, one which will reflect the _____ of Christ's _____ which is now within them without blemish or fault.

Have you been given a new name, a new _____, a new _____ that is reflective of Christ residing in you?

Will you _____ the name of Christ _____ each and every day?

“The Church in Philadelphia – Bearing His Name”

Revelation 3:7-13

Main Point: The Christ-follower is called to _____ the name of _____ both in this life and for all eternity.

I. The Correspondent (Revelation 3:7)

- A. Jesus is _____. For a believer to be holy is to be in the likeness or nature of the _____ because we are _____ from the world.

Be holy in all your _____ for He is holy.

- B. Jesus is _____. To be ‘true’ emphasizes the authentic _____ between what is true and its _____ of origin.

_____ the One who is true. Through the filling of the Holy Spirit, unite your _____ with His.

- C. Jesus has _____ and _____. The holder of the key is the person responsible in position and _____ to make _____.

Live under the authority of Jesus Christ as _____.

II. The City of Philadelphia

The city was founded in the late second century BC by one of the _____ kings and thereby named after Attalus II _____ who reigned as king of Pergamum from 159 to 138 BC.

Senior Saint Trip to the Kansas City Symphony Christmas Festival

It has been a tradition for us to take a group of our Senior Adults to the Kansas City Symphony's Christmas Festival each year and, this year, that concert will be at 1:00pm on Saturday, December 20th, 2025!

Before we purchase tickets for this concert, we would like to see who would be interested in attending so we know how many tickets to purchase. The tickets for this concert are generally around $50. If you would like for us to secure a ticket for you or for others as well, we would like to ask you to put your name, your phone number, and the number of tickets you would be interested in purchasing on one of our sign-up sheets located in both buildings. You do not need to pay for your tickets at this time. This will help us to plan well for this trip.
If you have any questions, please contact Steve Howell.

The deadline to sign up is Sunday, July 13th.
