Pray FIRST

If someone is on your nerves, don't complain about them, pray for them.
 If someone cuts you off in traffic, don't honk at them, pray for them.
 If you are angry with someone, don't tell them off, pray for them.
 If you are having trouble forgiving someone, pray for them.
 If you see someone needs direction, pray for them.
 Often we have knee-jerk reactions to situations or we stew about something when the best course of action is to pray for the situation. If we can't pray, then maybe we should begin by praying for our own attitude and relationship with God.
