"The Self-Satisfied Church"

Revelation 3:14-22

Main Point: The person who, even in the midst of apostasy and _____, turns to Christ and passes out of _____ and into _____ will be a part of the glorious company of overcomers.

I. The Correspondent (Revelation 3:14)

- A. Jesus is the "Amen", the personal _____ of all God's _____.
- B. Jesus is the faithful and true _____, the interpreter of God's counsel who is able to _____ to what He has seen and knows.
- C. Jesus is the _____, the origin of _____.

II. The City of Laodicea

- ...founded by the Seleucid ruler _____ in the third century BC.
- ...an important commercial center which included _____.
- ...a place of medical research and the development of an _____ salve.

III. The Church in Laodicea

With its proximity to Colossae and Hierapolis, it is believed that _____ founded the churches in these cities and in Laodicea as well.

IV. The Commendation of the Church in Laodicea

The Laodicean church is the only one of the seven churches for whom Christ has _____ of commendation.

V. The Concern for the Church in Laodicea (Revelation 3:15-17)

- A. Because the Laodicean Church was neither hot nor cold, Jesus will _____ them out of His mouth.
 - The believer who is "hot" is spiritually _____ and demonstrating a _____ life.
 - The person who is "cold" _____ Jesus Christ, the saving Gospel, and His _____ over their life.
 - The one who is lukewarm is not genuinely _____ and yet they do not _____ the Gospel.
- B. The Laodicean Church mistook their physical _____ for God's blessing and favor. They were spiritually _____, bankrupt of God's saving _____.

"We are privileged to know that [God] knows our needs before we ask Him. This is what gives Christian prayer its boundless confidence and its joyous certainty. It matters little what form of prayer we adopt or how many words we use, what matters is the faith which lays hold on God and touches the heart of the Father who knew us long before we came to Him."
