

III. _____ with God (Genesis 5:22-24)

- “Walking” reflects a close _____ with God.
- The believer’s future (eternal hope) is not based on his or her _____, but on his or her _____.
- The result of Enoch’s walk was his _____.
- How do _____ walk with God?
 - I walk with God by entering an intimate relationship with Him through _____ in His Son. (Hebrews 10:22a)
 - I walk with God by aligning my _____ with His, _____ daily to self. (Galatians 2:20)
 - I walk with God by being _____ to His image in obedience, putting on the _____ self. (Romans 8:29; Colossians 3:10)
 - I walk with God by _____ Him every way I can. (1st Corinthians 10:31)
 - I walk with God by bearing the _____ of the Spirit so that the world will _____ the reality of Jesus. (Galatians 5:22-23; Acts 4:13)

Lord, today I pledge to you my _____ to walk with you more diligently and confidently, each and every day.

A is for Application of the Passage to Your Life

P is for Prayer, Asking God to Reveal Life-Changing Truth to You

Looking Ahead:

For Sunday, August 17th -- Read & Journal Genesis 10 & 11

For Sunday, August 24th—Read & Journal Genesis 12 through 14

For Sunday, August 31st—Read & Journal Genesis 15 through 17

“Prayer can seek self display in either public prayer or private prayer. If we notice that we have prayed particularly well, we have our reward. “Since we have heard ourselves, God will not hear us.” (D. Bonhoeffer) How can we guard against this? The only way is to live a life completely surrendered to His will. This only happens by drawing nearer and nearer to God in prayer and His Word. It seems a vicious cycle, but as we practice Godly discipleship, God is faithful to grow us in devotion to Him and to please Him. Be patient with yourself, God is.”

(Quotes from “The Cost of Discipleship”—The Hiddenness of Prayer- by Dietrich Bonhoeffer.)

"Raising...Filling...Walking..."

Genesis 4 – 5

Main Point: God's desire is that you would lead your family in a legacy of _____ that results in _____ and righteousness, demonstrated by a consistent, faithful _____ with the Lord God.

Because Adam and Eve intentionally _____ the command of God, sin entered the garden, and with it, _____.

I. _____ Cain (Genesis 4:1-10)

Why did the Lord have _____ for Abel and His offering but for Cain and his offering He had _____ regard?

- A distinction was made between these two men, while Abel was a keeper of the _____, Cain was a tiller of the _____.
- Abel's offering was the _____ sacrifice of an animal; Cain's offering was a _____ sacrifice of some form of vegetation.
- The Lord looked _____ the offering of the man into the very _____ of the man.
- There was something in Cain's _____ and heart _____ that made his offering unacceptable to God.
- Is the Lord pleased with the offerings that _____ bring Him?
- Cain is encouraged by the Lord that if he does well by changing his feelings of _____ and envy he can be _____.
- Cain's insolence revealed the path of _____ that he had chosen, a path that would result in his banishment as he was _____ to be a fugitive and wanderer on the earth.
- While the blood of Abel cried for _____, the blood of Christ cries out for the _____ of sin.

II. _____ the Earth (Genesis 4:16-24; Genesis 5:3-32)

What is the significance of the _____ in Genesis 4:17-22 and Genesis 5:3-32?

- It is through the distinction of the lineages of two families, of Cain and of Seth, that we see two paths – one of _____ and punishment, the other of _____ and hope.
- Cain's descendants chose the defiant paths of _____ and _____. There was a digression in Cain's lineage toward _____.
- The favorable genealogy of Adam is continued, not through _____ but through _____.
 - The _____ of life.
 - The age span of _____.
 - The time of _____.
- There was a progression in Seth's lineage toward righteousness, specifically in _____ and his three sons.
